Volume 7, Number 3

Fall 1987

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with the exception of Ms., do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up-to-date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

9 FAMILIAR CRUELITIES: A NIGHTMARE JOURNEY THROUGH SOUTH AFRICA

by Mira Hamermesh

Researching her film "Maids and Madams," a study of Black women and their white employers in South Africa, a Holocaust survivor has a personal encounter with apartheid, and tells here how its racism is inextricably linked with an equally corrosive but less frequently documented sexism. The cruelties of both are jarringly familiar to Hamermesh, resonating with her childhood memories of Nazi persecution.

16 FREE IDA NUDEL!

LILITH launches a Women's Appeal to Raissa Gorbachev for the release of long-time refusenik and human rights activist Ida Nudel, isolated in the town of Bendery, Moldavia after four brutal years of Siberian exile.

18 COMEDY AND CONSCIOUSNESS

Can We Laugh at Joan Rivers?

by Celia Weisman

Can thinking women find anything to identify with in the persona of the abrasive late-night comic with the misogynist barbs?

Funny, and Feminist Too

by Judy Rosenberg

Two Jewish comedienues use humor to fight stereotypes—and still get laughs.

20 SHE FOUGHT BACK—AN INTERVIEW WITH VILNA PARTISAN VITKE KEMPNER

by Aviva Cantor

The woman who carried out the first known act of Jewish sabotage against the Nazis talks with LILITH about what it was like to be a woman in the Resistance in the ghetto and forest, her relationships with male and female comrades, and the special role women took in the movement.

25 LIFTING THE YOKE—IS THERE HOPE FOR ENDING JEWISH LEGAL DISCRIMINATION AGAINST WOMEN?

by Gila Berkowitz

Thousands of women came to Jerusalem in December to express their views on how the Jewish legal system oppresses them, and to call for action. But were the male rabbis, who have the power to change things, really listening?

27 THE RITUAL IMPULSE

by Tikva Frymer-Kensky

A review of Penina Adelman's Miriam's Well, a collection of new rituals for Jewish women, looks at the directions these ceremonies are taking us.

THE PREPARED TABLE*

2 FROM THE EDITORS

3 LINES OF COMMUNICATION

WOMEN ON BOARD

Six of the thousands of women who are serving on the boards of directors of nonprofit organizations and foundations in Wisconsin. Also, just how many nonprofit boards are there in Wisconsin, and more important to you, how do you get appointed to a board of directors?

54

SELF-CONFIDENCE

Self-confidence is big business these days. It seems the best advice is to stop looking for easy answers, know yourself and get on with your life by appreciating your unique limitations as well as strengths.
