FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 12, Number 2

Summer 1992

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of EP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Our goal is to bridge the diversity of feminist thought by providing an alternate environment which encompasses and respects the varied perspectives of women. Our power is strengthened by recognizing and exploring the diversity of women's experiences, ideas and concerns. Through this publication we hope to identify our commonalities and strengthen our collective power as women. Feminist Voices does not consider for publication anything that is racist, sexist or homophobic."

On the Cover: "Self-Portrait with Anita," 1955, by Audrey Flack. From Breaking the Rules: Audrey Flack, A Retrospective 1950-1990 (Abrams, 1992, $39.95, 159 pp.). Flack's fascinating works encompass periods of Abstract Expressionism, portraits, photojournalistic paintings, Photorealist paintings, and enormous, breathtaking bronze sculptures of goddesses that constitute a one-woman renaissance. Sumptuous color reproductions, essays on her major periods, and a catalogue of her works make this a complete exploration of this multifaceted artist.

PURIM 8

A poem by Susan Charles Groth
Sisters unite: the revenge of Vashti and Esther!

HIS ARMY/HER ARMY 9

WOMEN IN THE ISRAELI MILITARY

by Gail Hareven

What happens to women's worldview when their bosses have more power and less education than they do? A Tel Aviv journalist describes a military system that fosters sexual harassment by men, depression in women, and doomed, ingenue/hero marriages for both.

HOMEcoming QUEEN 13

by Marlene Roberts

Waving stupidly from the back of a flatbed truck at half-time leads a 1950's co-ed to a new understanding of the immigrant grandmother who raised her.

BODY & SOUL: CIRCUMCISION 16

THE POWER OF THE TRIBE

by David Kotzen-Reich

Bris anxiety? All the feelings you've ever had against this practice will surface again as this father describes his struggles over whether or not to circumcize a first-born son.

SANTA KLOZ HOT GEKHALESHT 18

SANTA FAINTS

An extraordinary piece of agitprop puppet theater by Jenny Romaine adapted from a 1930's, Yiddish Marxist primer. Romaine's toy theater of Terror As Usual will mesmerize you.

THE DOCTORS' PLOT 20

A DAUGHTER REMEMBERS

by Natalya Rapoport

When Stalin declared that "killer doctors" were deliberately poisoning and infecting the country's leaders, prominent physicians, mostly Jewish, were rounded up and murdered or exiled. Natalya Rapoport, now a scientist herself, is the daughter of the only survivor of the notorious "doctors' plot." Here she describes her excruciating ordeal as a 14-year-old who waits for her other parent to disappear, too.

FOODCULTURE: EAST MEETS WEST 25

SEPHARDI MEETS ASHKENAZI, PFEFFERNUSSE MEETS IMAM BAYELDI

by Gloria L. Kirchheimer

Is crossover eating disloyal? Nibble on and see.

7 Body & Soul: Awake and Zen Out . . .

by Susan Freeman

Maybe there's a reason why the traditional siddur has us begin each day with a pause for prayer before we leap out of bed and gulp down our power breakfasts. Tape your own voice and move through this guided meditation on awakening — gratefully — to each new day.

8 Guarding the Garden

a play by David Schechter

Who says Adam and Eve (and Lilith) don't need Deborah Tannen? Enjoy this excerpt from a new, screwball musical comedy (music and lyrics by Margot Stein Azen), one of the most intelligent Jewish renderings of eco-feminism that we've yet seen.

12 On Speaking German

by Yona Zeldis McDonough

As a Vassar undergrad, the author's negative feelings for all things German collide with her professors' love of Heine, Goethe and Kaffee mit Schlagsahne. Then by chance she discovers the work of Gertrud Kolmar (whose poetry appears here), a brilliant, forgotten German-Jewish muse murdered at Auschwitz.

16 Ritual Junkies Unite: Yo, Miriam!

by Susan Schnur

We drink from Elijah's cup at the end of the Passover seder. Why not drink from Miriam's cup at the beginning? New ceremony by Stephanie Loo Ritari, Matia Angelou and Janet Berkenfield; new artifact by Nissan Graham-Mayk.

18 What's in the Will? Good values.

edited by Jack Riemer and Nathaniel Stampfer

Sometimes we think that all we can leave to our inheritors is our jewelry, cash and bubbe's linens. There's more, as you'll see from these touching examples of a neglected Jewish tradition: telling those you love what it is you really want them to know about you.

21 Turning 40

by Rivkah Walton

Thirty five friends help a woman cross that dangerous threshold into midlife. Candles, sandals and Talmudic rumination.

22 Street of Whores

fiction by Ruth Knafo Setton

A young Moroccan editor confronts her identity after her father's death with insights derived from watching Tel Aviv's prostitutes.

32 The Magical Properties of Worrying

by Lois Braverman

Do others put you down when you noodge and worry? Ammunition from this feminist family therapist will help you fight back!

correction

Dear sisters,
I had a brainstorm when I wrote
my review of science fiction
novels in the February issue.
Sheri Tepper doesn't spell either of her names the way I wrote them. It always seems worse to make mistakes with authors that you like and approve of. My apologies to her and to readers.
