FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 14, Number 3

Fall 1994

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. "Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the interconnections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

The journal has a special interest in significant, timely topics that have not yet received substantial attention in the professional and popular literature. In recent years, special issues of Initiatives have focused on such diverse themes as feminism on a Catholic campus, men's studies, gender equity in math and science, sexual harassment, women's centers, and black women in higher education. Articles in nontheme issues have ranged widely: for example, women's education internationally, mentoring, pay equity, campus climate, women in aviation education, journal keeping, professional development, leadership, teaching young Native American women, dual career families, and self-defense training for women."

12. "Women and Therapy is the only professional journal that focuses entirely on the complex interrelationship between women and the therapeutic experience. The journal is devoted to descriptive, theoretical, clinical, empirical, and multicultural perspectives on the topic of women and therapy. Women comprise the overwhelming majority of clients in therapy. Yet there has been little emphasis on this area in the training of therapists or in the professional literature. Women & Therapy is designed to fill this void of information."

An International Women's Quarterly

No. 46, 1994

Asia: Women Arise

0 Introduction

2 Japan: Back to the Roots

Spending a year with an Ainu elder, Keira Tomoko rediscovers her own heritage.

4 China: Tortuous Developments: A Literary Odyssey

From a background of poverty, neglect and illiteracy, Shi Nan emerged a talented painter, sculptor and biographer.

5 Pakistan: Safety in Numbers

The Working Women's Hostel provides commodious, secure lodgings for women employed away from home.

6 Philippines: A Rich Harvest of Forbidden Fruit

Ripe and tasty images fill a book of women's erotica.

8 Thailand: Anjaree — Toward Lesbian Visibility

Anjaree advises lesbians and others who need to know—a much-needed service.

10 Bangladesh/Nepal: Shorts

Literacy classes and Half-Way homes.

11 Vietnam: The Flesh Trade's Empty Promises

Still one of the few means of employment readily available, prostitution thrives among poor women.

12 Bhutan/Nepal: Resilient Resistance

The Bhutanese Women's Association and the Centre for Victims of Torture help women raped and beaten by government forces.

14 Taiwan: International Networking: Good for All

Activists

Ni Chia-Chen, who recently attended the AIDS conference in Yokohama, also works rescuing child prostitutes.

16 India: A Government of the Women . . .

In local councils, women are applying their talents to the improvement of village life.

17 Tibet: Population Politics

The Chinese occupation has imposed genocidal restrictions on women's reproductive rights.

18 Moving Up the Power Ladder

The use of quotas is not enough to get women into government.

20 Taiwan: Lesbian Organizing: Culture, Sexuality, Politics

Glimpses of the emergent lesbian scene.

23 Indonesia: Female Closeness and Lesbian Identity

There have been images of lesbian life throughout history, but they are not easy to find.

24 Hong Kong: Equality Starts with the Family

Dr. Ellen Li, a pioneer feminist, has worked for four decades to improve the status of women.

26 Hong Kong/Indonesia: Between Reality and Hope

The movement of jobs from newly industrialized to lower-wage countries causes havoc for workers on both ends.

28 India: Cycle of Literacy

Learning to ride a bicycle does more than just get women to class.

29 Cambodia: Reconstructing the Fabric of Women's Lives

A woven ribbon linking the diverse heritages of women is being prepared for the Beijing Conference.

30 China: Enthusiasm for a Feminist Theology

The Reverend Gao Ying sees a brighter future for women in the Chinese Christian church.

33 Forward-Looking Strategies Re-Examined

What has been accomplished in the past ten years, and what can be in the next ten?

34 Japan: We Don't Have to Behave as Expected

Women are changing the shape of their participation in the workforce.

36 Sri Lanka: "I Call Myself a Feminist Activist"

Sunila Abeysekera has been working since the 1970s for human rights.

37 Thailand: Gender Watch

The GenderWatch group monitors the actions of government and political groups on gender issues.

Statement

Connexions is the collective product of feminists of diverse nationalities and political perspectives committed to contributing to an international women's movement.

We want to go beyond merely providing facts and information, and hope that by passing on—as directly as possible—women's writing generally unavailable in the US, we will be helping women here to understand and connect with the experiences and viewpoints of women in other parts of the world. We also want to contribute to the growth of a worldwide network connecting women working on similar projects by researching, establishing contacts and exchanging information with other women's organizations.

To a large extent, the economic and political conditions under which we live determine the issues to which we give priority. Women do not live in a vacuum, but in what is still largely a man's world. It is essential for us to understand the working of that world if we are to understand each other. We hope that Connexions will be one step toward building an international women's movement.

Connexions is a quarterly, and each issue focuses on a specific theme. Connexions is published by Peoples Translation Service, P.O. Box 14431, Berkeley, CA 94712. Subscription rates are $17 per year; Canada and Mexico US$20; Overseas $20 surface, US$35 airmail. An annual institutional subscription is $30. Please send international money orders in US$ or international travelers' checks in US$. Prices are good through 1994.

Articles and photographs from Connexions may be reprinted free of charge by non-profit publications without permission except where accompanied by copyright. (Others please inquire for reprinting rights.) Permission from the author must be obtained in order to reprint copyrighted material. FEATURES

LILITH AT 18

8 EUREKA!

What were the texts and experiences that shaped these notable women into feminist Jews? Crystallizing moment revealed by Cynthia Ozick, Marge Piercy, Bella Abzug and others.

14 LILITH

A RETROSPECTIVE

by Susan Weidman Schneider

A look back over the changes of the last 18 years by LILITH's Editor-in-Chief and Co-Founder. Who was there in the beginning and what has changed with the times?

17 WOMEN TO WATCH DURING THE NEXT 18 YEARS

by Rebecca M. Wand

Meet some of the energetic, focused and effective Jewish feminists born just a few years before LILITH. They're changing the future: photographing in the Dead Sea, organizing nonagenarian women in a nursing home, lampooning their oppressors onstage. Hey! Can you believe how motivated and fearless they are?

22 GO AND LEARN

compiled by Sharon Musher

We'd never have found a listing like this 18 years ago! Jewish women are the best educated women in North America (by a long shot); here's where we can go to fill in the gaps—large and larger—in our Jewish education.

LILITH

FALL 1994, V. 19, N. 3

BOOMERS & BAT MITZVAH

Women who turned to LILITH for baby-naming ceremonies 12 years ago now flood our phone lines to brainstorm about the next rite de passage: bat and bar mitzvah. Readers request two kinds of help: concrete ideas and a fresh new way to think about the whole thing. Here, both "trees" and "forest."

24 BAT MITZVAH IN THE 90'S

by Vivienne Kramer

It used to be about being "as good as the guys." Today it's an exhilarating opportunity to improve on tradition. Here's a spot check of some wonderful celebrations. Plus, doing it at summer camp or in the Rockies, transforming Bubbe and Grandpa, and a list of invaluable resources.

28 THE BAT MITZVAH DRESS

by Nechama Liss-Levinson

A mother and daughter come to understand that part of this rite of passage is a WHOLE exceptional day together. A solution in search of a problem.

30 BAT/BAR MITZVAH: HOW FAMILIES COPE

by Judy Davis

A family therapist—the reigning expert on this simcha—gives us broader ways to appreciate this year of underacknowledged growth and crisis, especially for us mothers.

4 KOL ISHAH

News of Jewish Women from All Over

Several things that couldn't have happened 18 years ago: Jewish women from around the world meet in Kiev; a feminist succah is created in Toronto; a campaign for women's rights at the Western Wall.

Where to Go for What—If You're Jewish and Female

Places to entertain yourself; how to give away money; notable travel opportunities for women and more

40 THE WAYS WE ARE

Jewish Judiths and Judys

by Judy Brodkey

An elite group, these J's and J's. No Susans or Robins need apply for membership, but the author generously offers to snare her expertise in homonymic organizing (much more fun than it sounds).

69.

A JOURNAL ABOUT WOMEN AND SOCIETY

"The best that can be done, as a general rule, is to maintain a precarious equilibrium that will prevent the occurrence of desperate situations, of intolerable choices — that is the first requirement for a decent society; one that we can always strive for, in the light of the limited range of our knowledge; and even of our imperfect understanding of individuals and societies. A certain humility in these matters is very necessary."
