FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 13, Number 3

Fall 1993

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Our goal is to bridge the diversity of feminist thought by providing an alternate environment which encompasses and respects the varied perspectives of women. Our power is strengthened by recognizing and exploring the diversity of women's experiences, ideas and concerns. Through this publication we hope to identify our commonalities and strengthen our collective power as women. Feminist Voices does not consider for publication anything that is racist, sexist or homophobic."

- 10 Germany: Penalizing Profligate Procreation
What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.
- 11 Italy: Family Time
A combination preschool and community center brings fragmented families closer together.
- 12 Tanzania: Kurwa and Doto Learn to Hunt
A brother and sister learn to respect and value the skills of each member of their family village.
- 14 Sweden: All in the EC Family
Membership in the European Economic Community may jeopardize Sweden's pro-woman family policy.
- 15 Canada: Partnership and Privilege
Even as the issue winds through Canadian courts, the pros and cons of legally recognizing lesbian relationships need to be addressed.
- 16 Uruguay: Mariana's Choice
Years of searching lead two grandmothers to the daughter of their long-"disappeared" children.
- 17 The Philippines: Democracy Within the Family
Two tales of trying to create equality, responsibility and democracy at home.
- 20 Australia: My Father is a Bird
A hat. A chair. A pair of shoes.

Table of Contents

Features

1

Two Heads Are Better Than One

Womanist ethicist Toinette M. Eugene explores the similarities and differences between womanist and feminist ethics and theology, and suggests they can work in tandem.

12

An African-American Child with a Face Full of Freckles

An adult survivor of racism, Helen Claire Ferguson relives some childhood memories and shares her methods of overcoming racism's dysfunctional effects.

16

Hannah, Why Do You Weep?

Using the biblical story of Hannah's barrenness as a springboard, Rosalyn Weaver traces a proud history of African-American women's resistance to a different sort of barrenness.

22

For All Those Who Were Indian in a Former Life

Native American Andi Smith protests the exploitation of traditional Indian spirituality.

32

How To Be A Racist Without Even Trying

Barbara J. Groth drives home the ways white privilege makes racists of even sincere, idealistic white religious feminists.

40

Racism in the Women's Community

Cathi M. Falsani brings important and shocking news from a recent study of women's organizations.

Jewish law—which no longer permits animal sacrifice or slaveholding—still binds married women to husbands who refuse to grant them divorces. Now Jewish women's groups around the world, declaring this the Year of the Agunah, vow to overturn, overrule or overwrite the law's cruel inequity.

Some Postgraduate Angst

Four very different Jewish women in their twenties try to figure out who they are, and how they fit into the multicultural mix.

by Karen Prager

What happens when I fit into more than one category?

by Hadar Dubowsky

by Robin Beth Schaefer

by Alina Sivorinovskiy

The Ways We Are

by Leslie Hollis Margulies
...In which the author, mourning
the gradual loss of her mother to Alzheimer's, discovers a generation of women who remember how to laugh.

by Salomea Kape

A Brooklyn physician recalls with bitter irony her experiences as a medical student in a "normalized" Poland in the years immediately following the Holocaust.

On the cover: from Multi-Cultural Celebrations: The Paintings of Betty La Duke, 1972-1992, by Gloria Feman Orenstein, Pomegranate Arthbooks, San Francisco, 1993.

SUMMER 1993/ VOL. 18, NO. 3

LILITH is named for the legendary predecessor of Eve who insisted on equality with Adam: "After the Holy One created the first human being, Adam, the Holy One created a woman, also from the earth, and called her 'Lilith.' Lilith said: "We are equal because we both come from the earth . . ." (From The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b)

Throughout the 1980s, we heard too much about individual gain, about the ethos of selfishness and greed. We did not hear enough about what it meant to be a member of a community. What we now have an opportunity to do, is to work to right the balance.

— Hillary Rodham Clinton
