FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

---

Volume 13, Number 4

Winter 1994

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

so that women can speak; that our voices will be heard. Our goal is to bridge the diversity of feminist thought by providing an alternate environment which encompasses and respects the varied perspectives of women. Our power is strengthened by recognizing and exploring the diversity of women's experiences, ideas and concerns. Through this publication we hope to identify our commonalities and strengthen our collective power as women. Feminist Voices does not consider for publication anything that is racist, sexist or homophobic."

FRONT COVER

Lupe Rodriguez, Modo de Bailar—Emily Carr, Acrylic on Canvas, 5' x 7', 1993. Photo: Jeff Nolte.

"In this work I pay tribute to Emily Carr, the artist and the writer. Through her work I have been invited to enter the forest and discover an enlightened world previously unknown to me."

BACK COVER

Lupe Rodriguez, Se Vende, Detail, Acrylic on Canvas, 3' x 2 1/2', 1992. Photo: Jeff Nolte.

"The dancing gypsy, although a cliché to many, is for me a symbol of the creative spirit of women artists—always in a state of flux, wanting to break barriers, never confined."

Lupe Rodriguez is a practising artist and an art educator at the Art Gallery of Ontario. Her most recent work addresses the issue of her own identity as a Spanish Canadian as well as the identity of women in our society.

Correction: In the Summer 1993 issue, "Women and Disability" we misspelled the name of the cover artist. Our apologies to Sharree Clark.

ON THE COVER

The tale of prostitution is ever present. Today, however, prostitution has been stretched to its most exploitative scale and form with government's implementation of "tourism" and "rest and recreation" industries. A case in point is Cebu, where the cover photo has been taken.

8 WHEN THE GODDESS CALLS TO JEWISH WOMEN

by Rahel Musleah

As Jews we've been taught to shun paganism, amulets, and "false" gods. But what about the pull of goddess imagery, witches, and pre-Judaic earth-centered female symbols that call to such women as Margo Adler, Starhawk and ...maybe you?

14 WOMEN FUNDING SOCIAL CHANGE

by Susan Weidman Schneider

All charitable giving intends to change the world. But the female philanthropists profiled here really want to shake things up, and they're putting their tzedakah right where their personal politics are.

18 PALESTINIAN WOMEN AT THE CROSSROADS OF PEACE

by Amy Avgar

After last season's historic handshake, and press coverage of Middle Eastern men, LILITH asks: Who are the Palestinian women working for peace? What are their hopes?

22 SEPHARDI WOMEN OF TURKEY: TRANSMITTING THE HERITAGE

A photo essay by Audrey Daniel

A bowl of oil, special foods, and ancient rites. In present-day Istanbul and Izmir, women from Sephardi families still honor their past.

24 SODOM—A BIBLICAL RETELLING

by Lori Ubell

Lot's daughter tells her autobiographical tale of Sodom—one that is clarifying, frightening and courageous.

COVER ARTIST:

Peggy Sue McRae

I love my Wicca circle. I love the objects we use to create sacred space, the forms of ritual. At the same time, I sometimes feel we get stuck in forms. Should north be green or black? Is it acceptable to adapt rituals taken from another culture for our own use? At a point, the politics of our spirituality seem to get in the way of real magic — pure spirit. In this painting, I chose not to include objects, but to evoke the simplicity of solitude: the pure and sensual pleasure of direct communion with nature.
