

Graduate Enrollment by Gender 9-year Trend

Data Definitions

- Headcount enrollment is a count of the number of people taking courses as of Official Day of Record (the 10th day of instruction) for the Fall term regardless of how many credits they are taking
- Graduate counts include all students enrolled regardless of degree-granting status

Point of Interest

UW-L's largest graduate program is the Master's in Professional Development, a program directed toward K-12 classroom teachers working to expand their knowledge, skills, and abilities in the classroom. The majority of students enrolled in this program complete their coursework in Learning Communities that meet off-campus.
