PF FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 12, Number 3

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

PERFUMES

We will continue to talk about allergies and other disabilities in BROOMSTICK. As a practical example, your editors are faced with a rather bizarre situation; we receive submissions we cannot read...because the paper is scented!! We're both very allergic to perfumes, so please check whether your paper is scented or if you have had perfume on your fingers when you handled it.

7 Red-Diaper Daughter

by Ilana Gerard Singer

Growing up in a Jewish-Marxist family in the frightened '50s, the author feels alien in white-bread America—and estranged from rye-bread America, too.

11 A Revolution in Small Steps

by Blu Greenberg

Is feminism possible within Orthodoxy, or is it oxymoronic? Greenberg, in this state-of-the-Union message, defies both right and left, and insists—through an accretion of radical anecdote—that women are launching Orthodox Judaism inexorably into gender equality.

18 Burned at the Stake: The Rediscovered Case of Isabel Lopez

by Claudia Wise with Susan Schmur

New documents from medieval Spain bring to life a Spanish-Jewish woman who could have been us—had we lived 500 years ago. Homely but incriminating testimonies from Isabel Lopez's housemaids make the Inquisition painfully real. Plus . . . how Isabel Lopez's relationship to Catholicism makes Wise ponder her own conversion to Judaism.

25 RU 486

by Sharon Lieberman and Andrea Boroff Eagen

This is the other fight for abortion rights. The abortifacient drug that has been lurking at the periphery of our consciousness is being kept out of the U.S. by those who don't much like Jews or women.

26 Follow Your Mikveh Bliss

By Marna Sapsowitz

Two Jews-by-Choice and their funky feminist rabbi pack hiking shoes and a bracha for a dip in the hot springs of the Pacific Northwest.

30 Foodculture: On Becoming a Jewish Vegetarian

by Roberta Kalechovsky

If, as the author posits, in Judaism the sensual precedes the intellectual, how do you give up Bubbie's delicious brisket for tofu?

36 Two Holocaust Survivors/One Red Coat

by Hedy Markowitz

A Kurdish boy's Bar Mitzvah at the Western Wall brings an intimacy of strangers, and what feels like a blessing from the grave.

Matriarchal traditions, poetry by Piercy, a wacky new book on the women of Chelm, Christian women who saved Jews, and a highly unconventional summer reading list.
