PFEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 12, Number 4

Winter 1993

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Our goal is to bridge the diversity of feminist thought by providing an alternate environment which encompasses and respects the varied perspectives of women. Our power is strengthened by recognizing and exploring the diversity of women's experiences, ideas and concerns. Through this publication we hope to identify our commonalities and strengthen our collective power as women. Feminist Voices does not consider for publication anything that is racist, sexist or homophobic.

BACK COVER

Sharon Fernandez, Kali, Great Mother, 1989. Acrylic on canvas, 4' x 6'.

Sharon Fernandez is South Asian. She was born in Kuala Lumpur, Malaya, and has been living and working in Toronto for the last 18 years. A cultural activist and visual artist, her momentum is fueled through empathy and connection. Always on the move, she experiences change, however painful, as a continuum towards deeper understanding and freedom.

The Differences Between Us

2 Introduction

3 Poetry: The Way You Look

4 Canada: Spheres of Difference

A Sephardic Jewish woman encourages us to respect each other's multifaceted humanity.

7 The Netherlands: The Ear of the Corn

A report from the Latin American Indigenous Women's Conference.

8 Peru: Women in Resistance

Women brace themselves against poverty and political turmoil by organizing new social and economic structures.

11 Switzerland: Culture Clash

Y.M. Tamil discusses the social freedoms and the pervasive loneliness she has observed in Swiss society.

12 Germany: Dear Angela!

The advent of motherhood should not cause the estrangement of one's feminist friends.

13 Tanzania: Diaspora

An immigrant writer from Jamaica discusses her life and the importance of keeping African culture alive in the African Diaspora.

15 Canada: Discarding the Shroud of Silence

At seminars and conferences, women with disabilities work to gain access and to change attitudes.

18 Brazil: Planeta FEMEA

Women from the South insist upon accountability from the North at ECO-92, the conference of non-governmental organizations in Rio de Janeiro.

20 Northern Ireland: No Patronage, Please, Sisters

Bernadette Devlin-McAliskey on women in Northern Ireland: We need to decide for ourselves.

23 Algeria: We Never Stop Fighting

Feminists are faced with the societal divisions of faith and liberation, emancipation and tradition, Socialism and right-wing politics.

24 The Netherlands: Being a Black Dyke in Amsterdam

In a letter to a friend back home, a Surinamese woman writes of the search for a community and a meeting place.

26 Sri Lanka: Da Bindu—Our Voice

Women working in the Free Trade Zones painstakingly print a newspaper to get their voices heard.

29 Croatia: Love Under Fire

Ivana's and Tanya's relationship is caught in the crossfire of the Serbo-Croatian civil war.

31 Istria: I'm a Bastard—and I'm Proud

Nelida Milani believes that a multicultural heritage enriches one's life.

32 South Africa: Liberation Through Art

Members of the Progressive Arts Project raise women's issues through poems, songs and stories.

34 Organizing for Strength

Organizing women workers with a women's perspective.

36 Australia: Falling Through the Health Care Cracks

Language and cultural barriers, poor working conditions, bad diet, and stress jeopardize immigrant women's health.

5 Shekhina — The Door to the Soul

by Carolyn McVikar Edwards

Cast aside all that book-learnin'! Here's a fantasy to help us imagine what it would be like to encounter the Shekhina — the feminine, nurturing aspects of God — in all the little rooms in our lives.

8 Yaffa Eliach's Pre-Holocaust Portraits

by Yona Zeldis McDonough

Holocaust scholar Eliach shares her family's cache of photos, soon to be installed in a major exhibit. Her mother and grandmother were both professional photographers; without knowing it they documented daily life in a world that is no more.

11 Lesbian Wedding

by Rosanne Leipzig and Judy Mable

Two women marry one another and in the process, surprisingly, create many reconciliations in their families by sowing healing, joy and empathy all around.

16 Jewish/Feminist Politics '92

A behind-the-scenes look at election-year politics in Israel and the United States — with some great quotes you didn't hear on CNN plus a listing of where to invest your political dollars.

18 Victory

A story by Perle Besserman

Leaning against the window when the World War II ended, a febrile Jewish girl sees her family warring just as the country finds peace.

32 A la Recherche du Taiglach Perdu

by Barbara Fleck-Paladino

A short search for our mothers in ourselves, with surprising findings.

Because blood is precious, more precious than gold and diamonds. Because blood is one: a pool of life dispersed among us in separate existences, but belonging by nature together: lent, not given: held in common, in trust, to be preserved: seeming to live in us, but only seeming, for in truth we live in it.
