FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 14, Number 1

Spring 1994

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in The Index/Directory of Women's Media published annually by the Women's Institute for Freedom of the Press (3306 Ross Place, NW, Washington, DC 20008); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

LILITH

FEATURES

8 INTERPRETING JEWISH DREAMS

by Susan Rothbaum

Do your dreams ever have Jewish content? Our author shows how she takes her "Jewish" dreams seriously, and how you can too.

10 BREAST CANCER—HOW RISKY IS IT TO BE JEWISH?

by Yael Green

Epidemiologists look at breast cancer; Jewish demographers look at statistics about Jewish women... but who's putting both sets of facts together? Only LILITH.

15 THREE ORTHODOX FEMINISTS DESPERATELY SEEKING

Psychologist Robin Zeiger discovers that, unlike feminists who are lesbian, disabled or Reform, being Orthodox is politically incorrect.

Beyond the fringe: writer Haviva Krasner-Davidson desperately seeks other women t'fillin wearers

Single Ortho woman on Upper West Side seeks nice non-Jewish guy for purposes of conversion, matrimony and observant living happily ever after.

22 MY MOTHER'S SECRET DRAWER

by Gloria Goldreich

After the funeral, Mama's four daughters meet to open her secret drawer, excavating layers of her life: Mama's first public library cards, letters home from camp, maps to family gravesites. One daughter takes home Mama's white silk scarf—she'll never wear it, but she'll sniff it now and then, searching out the mother scent.

25 A REFUGEE AGAIN, THIS TIME IN A COUNTRY CALLED WIDOWHOOD

by Rachel Josefowitz Siegel

As she goes through the phases of widowhood, this feminist therapist suddenly realizes that she can learn a great deal from an unexpected source: her childhood refugee self!

28 TWO DANCERS WHO LIVE THEIR DREAMS

by Yonah Zeldis McDonough

Unexpectedly, Judaism and dance turn out to have common ground. "Ballet and religious observance both require discipline," City Ballet star Dena Kinstlinger notes. "I learned about one from the other."

Ceremonial choreographer Fanchon Shur uses dance as a powerful engine driving Jewish ritual.

32 SARA RUDICH-PRAGER, AUDREY FRIEDMAN MARCUS AND ELAINE S. COHEN

profiled by Susan Weidman Schneider

Come meet three LILITH readers—feminist educators—from among the over 200 women, experts in various fields, who are already part of the LILITH Jewish Women's Talent Bank.

40 PASSOVER: THE FOUR GIRLS WITHIN US

by Ruth Berger Goldston

A clip-and-save addition to the Seder—a different take on being wise, wicked, simple and speechless.
