Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 24, Number 2 (Summer 2004)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in FP is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on women's studies or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department for each library of interest:

11. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

11. "The Columbia Journal of Gender and Law was founded to publish legal and interdisciplinary writings on feminism and gender issues and to expand feminist jurisprudence. Both national and international in focus, the Journal is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supematural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the US."

11. "The aim of Gender, Place & Culture is to provide the focal point for recent work concerned with gender issues in geography and related disciplines. Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

Appropriately social sciences research is reflecting this increasing concern with gender, especially in the field of work and organization where this journal is focused. Gender, Work and Organization is the first journal to bring together a wide range of interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research in this field into a new international forum for debate and analysis. The journal is dedicated to advancing theory, research and applications concerning gender relations at work, the organization of gender, and the gendering of organizations. Contributions are invited from all disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, history, labour economics, law, philosophy, politics, psychology and sociology."

11. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective... allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It will provide a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS will focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal will also publish related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

11. "The aim of this international journal is to open up a forum for dialogue, discussion and debate about the work of women writing in the Elizabethan to Victorian period. The editors welcome theoretical and historical approaches, multidisciplinary perspectives and contributions which are concerned with gender, race, and class. From time to time the journal publishes special issues devoted to particular themes."

MOMMY WARS

16 Career Shock: A New Jewish Mother Enters the Mommy Wars

by Sarah Blustein

Ambitious, talented, and educated to believe she's any man's equal, a thirty-something writer takes a stunning hit—to her career, her marriage and her psyche. Why? She has a child. For anyone who's ever been a mother, your guts will churn as you watch her struggle for safe passage between burnout and opt out.

19 We Need a Playground Revolution

by Miriam Peskowitz

Working? Mother? Conflicted? It's everywhere. Just in case you have been living on another planet and think our writers are the only ones worrying...here are pungent outtakes from the latest reports on mid-career motherhood.

23 Why Women's Organizations Aren't Helping Much

by Miriam Stone

*Why is this magazine called LILITH?
In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said "We are equal because we are created from the same earth."*

—from The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b

38 Reviews

Julia Wolf Mazow on women in Yiddish stories • Susan Sapiro explores ways communities can help us • Ilana Kramer on Jewish diversity • Bev Greenberg reviews a new novel from the author of The River Midnight • Karen Propp on a crop of women's "illness memoirs" • plus an excerpt from Nessa Rapoport's new memoir.

46 Tsena Rena

LILITH's lineup of upcoming events, exhibits, films and good deeds.

48 "I am an American"

by Bessie Teicher (as told to her daughter, Pearl Manne)

From 1917, an intimate narrative, part of LILITH's celebration of Jewish women's lives in America, marking the 350th anniversary of Jewish life in the U.S.

24 Glass

A short story by Diana Spechler

27 Klara

a poem by Marina Rubin

28 Emerging from the Matrushka Doll

Remember those bat mitzvah twinnings with deprived Soviet Jews? Now our twins are here, in their 20s and 30s. Listen in on them in the LILITH office as they talk to Rachel Kranson—and each other—and hear first hand what young American Jewish women from Russia really think about their mothers' careers, their Jewish identity, and other American Jews.

Dear Midwifery Today,

Enclosed are photos [cover and page 37] taken by my 13-year-old daughter Lily Runyan at the birth of my fifth child, first son, William Leopold Fern Runyan, 8 lbs 11 oz, born September 10, 2003, at 3:06 pm.

I am a midwife and his mother, Diana Fern. His father is William Runyan. Also present at the birth were his other sisters Bea (age 10), Clair (15), Ava (17) and Auntie Dawn Hunter.

Thank you,
Diana Fern

36 One Funny Woman

BY ELAINE LAFFERTY

Comedian Wanda Sykes is devoted to the proposition that whatever happens in the world, you gotta laugh.

What's So Funny?

BY GINA BARRECA

The difference between men's and women's humor may be the difference between revolt and revolution.

Wicked Funny

BY NINA BURLEIGH

WITH ELLEN SHORTLAND

Some of our funniest women—Fey, Bernhard, Garofalo, Clinton, Najimy—weigh in on what makes us laugh.

44 Food, Farming...Feminism?

BY ELAINE LIPSON

Making the case for growing, cooking and eating organically—plus, the Slow Food movement and the fight against genetic modification.

50 Our August Amazons

BY MICHELE KORT

Once again, Olympian women will impress and inspire at the Summer Games. Also, a conversation with Anita DeFrantz.

55 Documenting Women

BY AMY TAUBIN

Documentary films are hot stuff, and women have made some of the best of the latest bunch. Plus, a conversation with Sheila Nevins.

Little Red Riding Hood.

65 Taking Back the Whip

BY JESSICA SEIGEL

The author cracks a whip, then takes a crack at the powerful and sexy image of women and bullwhips.

68 Dances with Wolves

BY CATHERINE ORENSTEIN

Red Riding Hood has been variously chaste, racy and wolfish, but in early oral tales she was a triumphant heroine on her "wisdom journey."

FEATURES 6 KNEEL AND KISS THE GROUND Lee Pelham Cotton

Home from work on a hot summer's day, I pour a cold drink and settle into the armchair under the oak tree. I take a deep breath, and then another. Thus begins my prayer to the earth.

10 SACRED DANCE: PRAYER IN MOVEMENT Mary K. Wilson
Goddess-worship lends itself to spiritual dance. If dancing makes you happy, then it is a ritual to the Goddess.

13 A PRAYER FOR OUR DAUGHTERS Patricia Lynn Reilly

15 PRAYERS FOR THE GODDESS Erin Johansen
I replaced "prayer" with "ritual." Talking to the Goddess meant setting up an altar and candles, invoking the directions and lighting candles.

17 REMEMBERING OUR SISTERHOOD Raven Hunter
Women are gathering wood to build the fire, filling buckets with water from a nearby spring, while others are softly drumming.

19 THE ALCHEMY OF PRAYER Galina Krasskova
Prayer takes immense courage. When we pray, we delve deeply into the heart of God/dess as much as He or She delves deeply into us.

21 CONVERSATIONS WITH THE DIVINE Leni Austine
The act of creating beauty is a powerful prayer in praise of the Source.

23 LEAPING INTO THE ARMS OF THE GODDESS Spirit
I needed healing, a type of healing that would rebuild a new and stronger soul but my mind was so clouded that I couldn't even practice meditation. So I chose a different way to heal myself: prayer.

27 GARLANDS FOR THE GODDESS Carrie D. Cooper
No matter Who or how you worship, the patterns of prayer beads allow you to rest in the loving presence of the Holy Ones.

FEATURES 6 FINDING MY BEAUTY WAY Webweaver

The more I experienced in my journey work, the more my life became in tune with the natural rhythms of the moon, the earth, and all the beings who live here. This became my Beauty Way, or hozho.

13 MASKS OF THE GODDESS Lauren Raine

I resolved to begin each mask with something personal to inform my creative process. I wanted to know how these stories were conversant in my life, how the Goddess "danced" in me.

16 UNDER A PLUM RED SUN Helen Patrice

Australia is in the midst of its worst drought in many years. On the radio I hear that the women of Ouyen are thinking of staging a Nude Rain Dance. I like the idea and I want to support them.

19 CALLIGRAPHY LESSONS Kela Vaeltaja

To make it beautiful, calligraphy must be a meditation. Each brush stroke must be done in your mind, in the proper order, before you make them with your hand, setting brush to paper.

22 FROM APHRODITE TO HECATE Charlotte Andrews

I feel the peace filtering in again. It is odd to experience a profound spiritual moment while crouching down at the bottom of the shower trying not to pass out.

26 ON BECOMING A JUICY CRONE A SageWoman interview

Psychologist, Goddess-guide, and author Dr. Jean Shinoda Bolen is a legend in the Jungian and women's spirituality communities. SageWoman Editor-in-Chief Anne Newkirk Niven spoke with her about the Goddess, archetypes, the Crone and the importance of truth and beauty.
