Wisconsin Idea Revisited

The Wisconsin Idea is alive and well and growing at the Law School. It has been expanded to include the boundaries of the United States and beyond, boundaries across the oceans and the seas — encompassing the world.

The historic mission of the Law School is three-pronged: 1) teaching and training of lawyers; 2) research; 3) public service. The last issue (Winter, 1978, Vol. 10, No. 2) was devoted to the teaching functions and we hope conveyed the impression that the Faculty takes its teaching and its burden of administrative duties very seriously indeed. Another issue soon will be devoted to research. The service to the public which is catalogued here is in addition to all that.

It is more than public service, of course. Faculty involvement in some of the great problems of the
