Feminist Periodicals

A current listing of contents

Volume 26, Number 4 (Winter 2007)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in FP is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on women's studies or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media, published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky and compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department for each library of interest:

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

11. "Critical Matrix is a forum for research, criticism, theory, and creative work in feminism and gender studies. Seeking connections among academic, creative, and political approaches to gender, Critical Matrix brings together written and visual materials that explore, redefine, or reach across traditional disciplinary boundaries. Edited by graduate students, guided by an advisory board of nationally recognized scholars, and published twice yearly by the Program in Women's Studies at Princeton University, Critical Matrix solicits new work by authors from multiple disciplines, at any stage in their careers, with or without academic affiliation."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the Editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

"13th Moon is the oldest continuously published feminist literary magazine of those founded in the 1970's revival of feminism. Its field of scholarship is literature and graphic art by contemporary women...." 13th Moon provides a forum for material often neglected by the larger culture which does not bear women's concerns in mind, and by translators of foreign language literatures who overlook the work of contemporary women writers. It is committed to publishing the work of minority women, lesbians, and women of color, and has published "...a large selection of writers who are either 'new formalists' or experimentalists..."

11. Trivia: Voices of Feminism is a public forum for the creative and the critical thinking of that great diversity of women who insist on our primacy, and who in league with and in the name of all the other endangered species on this planet, refuse to accept the life-destroying status quo. We publish feminist writing in the form of literary essays, experimental prose, poetry, translations, and reviews. We encourage women writers to take risks with language and forms so as to give their ideas the most original and vital expression possible. Our larger purpose is to foster a body of rigorous, creative and independent feminist thought.

The journal consists of original data-based research, review essays, creative writing, book reviews, commentaries, letters and responses, and other scholarly writings relative to sport and physical activity. Contributions across all disciplines are welcomed, in addition to a variety of approaches and viewpoints. Emphases of the journal are the development of theory about women and their physicality, the gender issues relevant to women in sport and physical activity, feminist re-conceptualizations of existing knowledge, and action-oriented research. Contributions for the journal are sought throughout the world and from traditional and non-traditional settings."

FEMINIST VIEWS

14 ARE WOMEN HUMAN?
"Here is the question: What will it take for violence against women, this daily war, this terrorism against women as women that goes on every day worldwide, this everyday threat to and crime against the peace, to be responded to in the structure and practice of international law with anything like the level of focus and determination as the present mobilization inspired by the September 11 attacks?"

Legal theorist Catharine MacKinnon not only asks questions, but has some answers about enforcing human rights to end the war against women.
by Susan C. Cole

18 POVERTY FUELS TRAFFICKING IN JAPAN

Human trafficking is closely tied to the international prostitution industry. Thousands of women from poverty-stricken Cambodia are tricked and forced into prostitution, and now an international movement of women is fighting back. by Shannon Devine

23 HOW TO STOP FGM
International efforts to stop female genital mutilation are beginning to affect the practice which continues to rob millions of young girls of their human rights. Waris Dirie, UN special ambassador for the elimination of female genital mutilation, talks about her life mission to end the practice. by Maggie Mortimer

27 THE LONG ROAD TO JUSTICE IN AFGHANISTAN

Basic human rights protections remain elusive for women in Afghanistan, who are assaulted at alarming rates. One front-line women's legal clinic in Mazar-i-sharif provides legal and dispute-resolution services. by Lauryn Oates

10 Sybil's Last Tape

recorded by Bonnie Morris

Aunt Sybil spills the beans about life for a Jewish girl in the Twenties, and how she toughened up her immigrant mother to improve her parents' marriage.

12 Childless in Israel

by Barbara Gingold

Up close and personal in the Promised Land: women without children in this intensely pro-natalist society.

17 Sound Effects

A SHORT STORY by Michele Ruby

EMPOWERING WOMEN

20 A Philanthropist Gives Feminist Art What It Deserves

by Susan Weidman Schneider

"Feminist art is all about the politics." Elizabeth Sackler enshrines Judy Chicago's "The Dinner Party"—and more—at the Brooklyn Museum center that bears her name. And now Judy Chicago explores her own Jewish identity. Photos by Joan Roth.

26 Our Radical Reclaiming of the Jewish Mother

Two seriously funny Jewish mothers go behind the jokes that have reined us in to reveal the secret messages of power beamed at us from stage, screen and stand-up mic. Susan Schnur interviews historian Joyce Antler about her new book, You Never Call! You Never Write!

NAVIGATING SEXUALITY

30 The Rehearsal Man

by Jill Dearman

How does she turn gay women straight?

34 What's to Come after Lesbian Rabbis?

by Melanie Weiss with Rabbi Susan Schnur

The cover photograph, taken by Alicia Elliott, is of a 10-day-old full term twin and his four-year-old sister. The challenge of the photo session was to have both twins comfortable, well fed and sleepy, and to coordinate a precocious four-year-old in such a way that she was naturally interacting with her tiny siblings. To view more of Alicia's work you are invited to visit www.liquidflight.com or www.impulsephotography.ca.

GODDESS VIRTUES:

FEATURES

6 SACRED PLACES NEAR & FAR

Joanna Powell Colbert

There is something about the idea of a journey that touches us all deeply. Perhaps it's because every journey is a metaphor for our soul journeys.

13 DISCOVERING ÒSUN'S JOY

Yéyè Sílú Òsunyemi

Discovering that I was a daughter of Òsun was an unexpected blessing: parts of myself that I had denigrated and repressed turned out to be expressions of this jubilant, sassy, female Being.

18 THE NAKED TRUTH

A. Burke

I'm naked in dazzling sunlight in front of a hundred strangers. A Freudian nightmare from which I yearn to awaken? Hardly.

21 BREATHING EVERY DAY

Every day I thank the Goddess for plain breathing. I am filled with Her. I am breathing Her in. I am inspired. I am breathing out. I am breathing in again.

26 THE HEALING POWER OF HAPPINESS

Vila SpiderHawk

As long as I have my trove of memories, I can live them again whenever I want.

of our minds

We've Come a Long Way!

Time flies when you are having fun. Celebrate 15 years of Teen Voices with the people who have been behind the scenes all these years.

Are We There Yet?

From reciting parts of the Torah to answering riddles, women around the world celebrate their coming-of-age with unique rituals and rich traditions. And, see how you can plan your own celebration!

Staying Safe in Your Online Space

Online diaries, personal web-pages and social networking sites are fun ways to communicate—but you need to stay safe, too. Check out the “8 Tips for Web Safety,” plus, see how Teen Voices put a new spin on how to use MySpace.

47 Girls' Room Returns!

A former Teen Voices artist shows her appreciation for us with a little creativity and humor!

3 Dear Teen Voices

One reader asks “Who is Teen Voices for?” and another wants to know why we had such a rosy perspective when examining the color pink.

4 Letter from the Editor

Celebrating the 15th birthday of Teen Voices with the people that make us special—You!

5 Girl Talk

Teens ride across America fighting for the rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) students. And, find out about a new vaccine that prevents a sexually transmitted infection.

10 Good Reading

Best buddies are hard to come by, but these poets know the value of a true friend.

Dear D

What do you do when a teacher crosses the line? D gets serious about dealing with sexual harassment in school.

14 Arts and Culture

Singer-songwriter Magdalen Hsu-Li calls herself a “cultural activist.” Find out why she takes the power of music so seriously. And, don't forget to check out our book, music, and movie reviews!

20 Small World

Six Japanese teens debunk stereotypes about their country, and tell us what being a teen in Japan is really like!

36 Food Corner

Chef Barbara Lynch worked her way up from dishwasher to one of the top chefs of Boston. Learn her recipe for success.

49 Health

Take a small step to improve your health by snacking on pita bread and hummus instead of pizza and candy. Get the facts about teen nutrition and find out why some teens decide to become vegetarian.

26 Love Poems

Love gone bad can be painful—check out these poems of tears and healing.

35 SHOUT! Notes

Teen Voices re-boots with new computers and technology programs for teens!

40 Top 10

Celebrate 10 reasons why Teen Voices rocks!
