FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 15, Number 4

Winter 1996

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

provide the focal point for recent work concerned with gender issues in geography and related disciplines. Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender;
the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

"My point of departure is an aesthetic response to my intellectual accomodation of the surrounding world and culture in an ongoing dialogue concerning the specificity of perceived location in time and space. In Romania, I was always looking forward. In Austria, away from my family, I found a haven in memories of the past. In Canada, I am learning to live in the present."

Arina Ailincăi has been living in Toronto since 1988. She was the artist-in-residence at the Harbourfront Craft Studio from 1990 to 1993. Currently she shares a studio with two other artists. Her work has been exhibited in numerous shows across Canada and Europe.

8 THE DECEMBER DILEMMA 30

by Sandell Morse

When her Jewish son's Mayflower girlfriend draws him away from his tribe, the author suddenly wonders, "What was in my head when I hung up Christmas stockings for them when they were kids?" So what's Nu? Our children, as always, are our best teachers.

12 GENDER REBELLION IN YIDDISH FILM (IT'S MORE THAN VICTOR/VICTORIA!)

by Eve Siclar

"Trouser roles" aren't just the property of Marlene Dietrich and Julie Andrews. Read here about Molly Picon's popular crossdressing—and what the droll, surprisingly subversive world of Yiddish film reveals. What's gender anxiety got to do with Jewish anxiety?? Lots.

18 THE EXPLOSION IN JEWISH WOMEN'S POPULAR MUSIC

by Rahel Musleah

Why? How? When? And—most important—who? A journalist/musician surveys the scene and gives us her 13 Best Picks of singers and composers. Susan Schnur interviews Musleah herself, descended from the renowned 18th century Chazzan of Baghdad. PLUS...An invaluable Resource Directory of EVERYTHING in folk/pop music that's Jewish and female.

30 SAYING DINA

by Jean Shikman

"I may not have room in the apartment, but I have room in the heart." LILITH kicks off a new occasional column—Altruists—with an account of the adoption, 50 years ago, of a Jewish war orphan (the first child survivor to make it to America). Dina Rom's courageous, empathic, working-class "Mom," Frieda Shikman, is still doing good deeds at 88.

34 "LA GRANDE RACHEL"—THE TRAGIC MUSE OF THE COMEDIE FRANCAISE

by Rachel Kadish

Another Jewish foremother who needs reclaiming, Rachel Felix (1821-1858) was Europe's first real theatrical star. Proud of her Jewishness, written about by Charlotte Bronte, Virginia Woolf and Henry James, painted by Delacroix, she scandalized France (no easy feat) and redefined theater.

2 FROM THE EDITOR

3 LETTERS

4 KOL ISHAH—NEWS OF JEWISH WOMEN

AROUND THE WORLD

• A Tel Aviv museum paints women out of the picture (literally!) and three Pennsylvania artists mount a counter-exhibit. • Sexual harassment in the Israeli workforce • Brown U. stages a night of Jewish women's POWER! • In Washington, Hillary Clinton and two dozen other powerbrokers court women donors to the UJA.

27 THE CREATIVE EDGE Arts and crafts you can order

38 NEW &amp; NOTEWORTHY

LILITH Reviews Rachel Calof's Story—from Russia to Devils Lake, North Dakota in 1894; Ruby of Cochise; Dr. Ruth's Heavenly Sex and more.

42 TSENA RENA

LILITH's terrific resource guide to new projects, videos, places to volunteer, anthologies looking for your story, and more.

44 THE WAYS WE ARE: SPILLING OUT THE WINE

by Deborah Eisenbach-Budner

A beautiful new wedding blessing, in English AND Hebrew, that (finally) fills the ethical bill. Clip, save, and fax immediately to your fave rabbi or cantor.

Correction

Due to a typesetting error in Women's Studies Quarterly 1995:1&2, the source of the photograph of Maida Springer-Kemp et al. on page 70 was omitted. The photograph is courtesy of the George Meany Memorial Archives. Also, on page 42, the heading should read "School and Community." Women's Studies Quarterly and AeroType, Inc., sincerely regret these errors.
