FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 16, Number 1

Spring 1996

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

18 NEWS TO TURN THE WORLD

by Katie Singer

"My friend knows a man what can make me an abortion." A mother's unexpected umpteenth pregnancy in 1917 creates an unexpected poignancy for her oldest daughter.

Though Singer's piece is fiction, today's threats to reproductive rights are not. LILITH takes a look at restrictive (and sometimes hidden) new anti-abortion legislation, and tells whom to contact, from the White House on down, to defend your rights.

p. 18

24 MOTHERS WITHOUT PARTNERS—ON PURPOSE

by Terese Loeb Kreuzer

Headlines (and the Census Bureau) hail the new statistics: more middle class white women are choosing to have children alone. And Jewish women are overrepresented in this new crop of well-educated, financially solvent single mothers by choice. Here's why they're doing it.

PLUS—"You Don't Have a Daddy, You Have a Donor," Rabbi Julie Greenberg's communications with her young daughter.

p. 24

Lilith is named for the legendary predecessor of Eve who insisted on equality with Adam. After the Holy One created the first human being, Adam, the Holy One created a woman, also from the earth, and called her Lilith. Lilith said: "We are equal because we both come from the earth. . . ." (From The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b)

13 COMING OF AGE AS AN IRAQI JEW IN CALIFORNIA

by Loolwa Khazzoom

When multiculturalism was not yet a buzzword, it was hard to be young and Iraqi in Hebrew schools and youth groups where "Jewish" meant "Ashkenazi." Harder still to be young, female, and passionate about prayer in the Iraqi synagogue where only men and boys had value.

15 YOUNG TEENS TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

by Enid Schatz with Susan Schnur

YAY! The 90's are here! All the injustices of the previous decades can be righted by learning, marching, defeating those old stereotypes—a summer-camp exercise where girls and boys together fight sexism and repair the world.
