FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 16, Number 4

Winter 1997

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."*

The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies.'

Lilith is named for the legendary predecessor of Eve who insisted on equality with Adam. After the Holy One created the first human being, Adam, the Holy One created a woman, also from the earth, and called her Lilith, Lilith said: "We are equal because we both come from the earth...."

(From The Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b)

HEALING: A SPECIAL SECTION

12 IS OUR SUFFERING TRANSFORMATIVE?

by Susan Schnur

A rabbi comes out of the closet as a chronically ill person, and shares what she has culled from a book of healing psalms.

14 BEING SICK AND BEING JEWISH

by Tamara Green

"Everywhere I read that we are created in God's image. What about me? Does God also walk with crutches, have difficulty breathing? Why did God do such a lousy job with my body?" One professor asks the questions; Rachel Naomi Remen and Rabbi Shoni Labovitz offer partial answers.

18 BATHING PEARL

a short story

by Shelly Fredman

Eldercare: A granddaughter moves from hostility to love.

22 HOW DID THEY GET INTO HER WOMB?

by Sarah Blustein

Judith Helfand lost her reproductive system at 25 thanks to the "wonder drug" her mother took while pregnant. As "A Healthy Baby Girl"—Helfand's startling film about being a DES daughter—heads to the Sundance Festival, Helfand talks about her mom, her politics and the community of filmmakers who've helped her heal.

24 SACRIFICE

a short story by Batya Swift Yasgur

Survivor's guilt plagues a young woman, who tries to assuage it under the surgeon's knife.

7 EACH OF US HAS A NAME

Hyphenated name? Hebrew name? Got rid of your ex-husband's name? Who are you named for? Yiddish name? Hate your middle name? Trouble pronouncing your name? Listen in as women of all ages dish about what we want to be called.

28 CONSTRUCTING THE JEWISH FEMINIST PANTHEON

by Sarah Blustein

Who are the pillars of present-day Jewish feminist scholarship? And what do these women—and the "pioneer scholars" of the 1970s and 1980s say about Jewish women's studies (and about each other) as we approach the year 2000. A LILITH 20th anniversary review.

48 IT WAS NO FUN

by Ruth Gay

It turns out that Woody Allen didn't invent anhedonia. For Jewish immigrants in America, happiness was just not seen as a legitimate goal in life. LILITH's back page on women's history—"The Ways We Were"—asks what happened when the American ideal of romantic love and matinee idols clashed with the realities of sour tenement lives.
