A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

---

Volume 17, Number 4

Winter 1998

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. Library of Congress (LC) catalog card number.
9. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
10. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
11. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
12. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 12 are used to identify the different categories of information.

ii.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

12. *The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing.*

12. "Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

12. *Gender & Society focuses on the social and structural study of gender as a basic principle of the social order and as a primary social category. Emphasizing theory and research from a micro- and macrostructural perspective, Gender & Society welcomes studies in sociology, social psychology, political science, history, economics, and anthropology that are framed by a social analysis and a feminist perspective. Gender & Society is committed to an evaluation policy that does not preclude any of the feminist perspectives.*

12. *The aim of Gender, Place and Culture is to provide the focal point for recent work concerned with gender issues in geography and related disciplines. Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies.*

12. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is 'to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus.'

"Women & Language is an interdisciplinary research periodical and newsletter, associated with the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender, which seeks to provide a feminist forum for those interested in communication, language and gender. It raises questions on the construction of gender and the interconnections among sex, gender, race, class, and heterosexual hegemony with regard to symbolic communications and the impacts of masculinist communication paradigms. Women & Language welcomes completed research, essays, personal narratives, poetry, as well as work in progress and information sharing on conferences, publications, and so on. It includes contributions from all disciplines, and particularly looks for interdisciplinary work."

News of Jewish women around the world

• Were Yemenite babies stolen in Israel? • What's in a bra? • New feminist scholarship • Penny Liebman's intimate gallery • How women of Luboml, Poland, lived before the War • A new film on why some women are drawn to Lubavitch

8 Letters

10 Is Abortion Murder?

by Leila Bronner

As Promise Keepers cast their political opposition to abortion in religious terms, a biblical scholar offers us texts which help us understand the theological differences between Christians and Jews.

Our Sisters' Keepers

by Alice Sparberg Alexiou

Guess who loses in the Promise-Keepers' "battle against Satan". . .

14 An Insurance Commish Who's Changing the World

by Carole Glickfeld

Seattle's battle-hardened Deborah Senn fights for the rights of domestic violence survivors, Holocaust survivors and others, transforming her agency from lapdog to watchdog. Now some national politicians are watching her.

16 Two Lesbian Women. . . and Their Pretty Straight Wedding

by Susanapiro

The title almost says it all, but read the whole story to see the ceremony they created and to hear what the Orthodox tzayde said at the dinner.

20 Family Secrets

by Mona Kornberg

Did your Jewish family once have a retarded relative hidden away? An old photograph holds new revelations about the author's long-dead sister.

26 Suleika and Me

A short story by Ruth Knafo Setton

A Moroccan Jewish girl, assassinated in Fez 170 years ago, becomes a martyr to Muslims, Jews and Christians too.

31 Fin-de-Siècle Feminist Food Culture

by Diane Cole

Women take the spotlight as caretakers of a vital part of Jewish life.

33 Book Reviews

Five Women Emerge From the Shadows of Their "Great Men"

by Sarah Blustein

Memoirs recall life with Bellow, Singer, Roth, Schindler and Mailer.

New and Noteworthy

44 Tsena Rena

LILITH's indispensable resource pages

Plus . . . Part Two of our Jewish Women's Address Book.

47 The Creative Edge

48 Yay! Now We Can Sing 'Em

by Susan Schnur

Newly created settings for Marcia Falk's new, feminist blessings and prayers help us use this awesome liturgy in the fullness of spirit it deserves.

Cover painting is taken from Multicultural Celebrations: The Paintings of Betty La Duke, 1972-1992, by Gloria Feman Orenstein (Pomegranate Books, 1993). La Duke, a painter, has done extensive research in non-Western countries resulting in 5 books on women, art and social change. Her 1997 publications by Africa World Press are Africa: Women's Art, Women's Lives and Women Against Hunger; A Sketchbook Journey.
