FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

---

Volume 18, Number 2

Summer 1998

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
10. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

11. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

11. "Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

The journal has a special interest in significant, timely topics that have not yet received substantial attention in the professional and popular literature. In recent years, special issues of Initiatives have focused on such diverse themes as feminism on a Catholic campus, men's studies, gender equity in math and science, sexual harassment, women's centers, and black women in higher education. Articles in nontheme issues have ranged widely; for example, women's education internationally, mentoring, pay equity, campus climate, women in aviation education, journal keeping, professional development, leadership, teaching young Native American women, dual career families, and self-defense training for women."

11. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

"Women & Language is an interdisciplinary research periodical and newsletter, associated with the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender, which seeks to provide a feminist forum for those interested in communication, language and gender. It raises questions on the construction of gender and the interconnections among sex, gender, race, class, and heterosexual hegemony with regard to symbolic communications and the impacts of masculinist communication paradigms. Women & Language welcomes completed research, essays, personal narratives, poetry, as well as work in progress and information sharing on conferences, publications, and so on. It includes contributions from all disciplines, and particularly looks for interdisciplinary work."

2 From the Editor

3 Kol Ishah

News of Jewish women all over the world

"Compassionate Touch" in Bosnia
• JAP-baiting on trial in Scarsdale
• Eating disorders—an Orthodox epidemic • Border-crossing Mideast music

10 Why Is The Wall Street Journal Attacking Women's Holocaust Scholarship?

Searing controversy is erupting over research on women's experiences in the camps, the ghettos and the resistance movements. Deborah Lipstadt reviews Women in the Holocaust; Paula Hyman, Marion Kaplan, Lore Segal join her in its defense.

14 Only Connect...

How do we integrate who we are with who we've been? How can we integrate past friends, other cities, buried experiences into present lives? Two tales bind then and now:

• Bob&Arline&Norm&Alyce

by Susan Schnur

A widow and widower (grieving separately but in parallel) are surprised by joy in finding each other.

• Recovering Memory

by Eva Metzger Brown

A psychologist goes across one ocean and 55 years to pick up a little girl—herself—stranded on a curb.

32 Fresh Voices

Four young first novelists tell what spurs them to write such terrific fiction.

18 Big Mouths

by Susan Schnur

At last we can begin to understand the power of speaking out, and why it's a Jewish woman's birthright. Our resident rabbi analyzes the phenomenon of the loud-mouthed, justice-seeking hollerers we've all met (and feared and admired), and explains why, right in the prophetic tradition, these women are able to contradict both the JAP stereotype and the quiet-lady paradigm. Sarah Blustein profiles several real-life Big Mouths our readers have nominated as their role models.

36 Girls: Resilient and Resourceful

Young adult books navigate the difficult terrain of adolescence, helping readers understand the death of a sibling, sexual misbehavior by a rabbi, girls in Arab and Israeli societies, and more.

38 Think Twice about Roald Dahl

by Michele Landsberg

Rereading the classic author of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory through a Jewish feminist lens, Landsberg marshalls convincing evidence of misogyny and anti-Semitism.

40 Reviews

LILITH reviews three powerful books: the encyclopedia Jewish Women in America, Rachel Adler's long-awaited Engendering Judaism, and a paradoxical encounter with right-wing women.

44 Marketplace

46 Tsena Rena

Essential resources if you're Jewish and female.

48 Vagina Monologue

by Eve Ensler

That heralded stage piece in which an unnamed Jewish woman from Queens talks about her fear of "down there."

Cover: Bella Abzug speaking to a pro-abortion group in New York City, 1986. Photographer: Kirk Condyles, Impact Visuals.
