FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 18, Number 3

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
10. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

11. *The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

11. 'Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action.'

Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

The journal has a special interest in significant, timely topics that have not yet received substantial attention in the professional and popular literature. In recent years, special issues of Initiatives have focused on such diverse themes as feminism on a Catholic campus, men's studies, gender equity in math and science, sexual harassment, women's centers, and black women in higher education. Articles in nontheme issues have ranged widely: for example, women's education internationally, mentoring, pay equity, campus climate, women in aviation education, journal keeping, professional development, leadership, teaching young Native American women, dual career families, and self-defense training for women."

11. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is 'to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus.'

11. Women & Language is an interdisciplinary research periodical and newsletter, associated with the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender, which seeks to provide a feminist forum for those interested in communication, language and gender. It raises questions on the construction of gender and the interconnections among sex, gender, race, class, and heterosexual hegemony with regard to symbolic communications and the impacts of masculinist communication paradigms. Women & Language welcomes completed research, essays, personal narratives, poetry, as well as work in progress and information sharing on conferences, publications, and so on. It includes contributions from all disciplines, and particularly looks for interdisciplinary work.

11. "Women and Therapy is the only professional journal that focuses entirely on the complex interrelationship between women and the therapeutic experience. The journal is devoted to descriptive, theoretical, clinical, empirical, and multicultural perspectives on the topic of women and therapy. Women comprise the overwhelming majority of clients in therapy. Yet there has been little emphasis on this area in the training of therapists or in the professional literature. Women & Therapy is designed to fill this void of information."

8 Right-Wing Women Struggle to Protect Orthodoxy from Feminists

by Sarah Blustein

While “Modern Orthodox” women seek a harmony between Judaism and feminism, sisters to their right are digging in, sponsoring lectures and classes to draw women (even high-powered careerists) back to home and hearth.

16 Israel at 51

by Naomi Danis

In half a century, have we heard only half the story? Now you can read about the women—and their projects—you saw nothing about in all the other media coverage of Israel's anniversary.

24 An Open Letter to Buddhist Jews

26 How Museums Invent Us

by Carolyn Feibel

Your great-aunt's soup pot in a museum? Priceless artifacts in your attic? Introducing the new wave of feminist curators, who've fought to have shoes, cookbooks and miscellaneous tchochkes-cum-folk art included in the exhibited history of the Jews.

31 Objects of Desire

by Carol Bergman

A daughter's haunting account of her father's obsession—the naked, strangely mutilated children of painter Egon Schiele. Bergman asks: “Why did he subject me to this work?”

34 Life: The Unexpurgated Edition

by Susan Schmur

Debbie Perlman is the only Resident Psalmist in the world, a job that's been vacant for 3,000 years. “A new psalm helps people recognize that life has more holy moments in it than we think,” she told LILITH.

38 Reviews

Francine Klagsbrun on what we learn from women who want to be rabbis; new fiction, and more.

44 Marketplace

Great gifts for you and everyone else.

46 Tsena Rena

Essential resources if you're Jewish and female.

48 100 Years of Gratitude

by Lesléa Newman

Why did 99-year-old grandmother have to know? Newman comes out to her beloved grandmother, and the consequences surprise them both.

Cover: From “Unpacking on the Prairie: Jewish Women in the Upper Midwest.” Donated to the Jewish Historical Society by her daughter Ione Steigler.

Photo on page 37 (see thumbnail above) by Annie Ocean. Annie Ocean has been a photographer since age seven and has lived on womyn's land for 19 years. Her partner, a CNM, encouraged her in 1985 to photograph deliveries. Since then Annie has shared many wonderful births, becoming in the process a radical midwifery advocate. Annie says, "I so want the general public to change our language from 'ask your doctor' to 'ask your practitioner.' Much love, courage, and power to midwives—we've been here FOREVER."

Mounted prints of Annie's photographs can be purchased by contacting her at 1662 NW Keasey, Roseburg OR 97470; Telephone (541) 672-0525.

Women's Resources International

CD-ROM

Women's Resources International (1972-present) is a new CD-ROM of over 116,000 records drawn from a variety of essential women's studies databases. Enjoy unprecedented access to all of these databases exclusively on a NISC DISC.

Eight databases!

Women Studies Abstracts

Women Studies Abstracts (1984-present) is edited by Sara Stauffer Whaley and provides more than 30,000 records. Approximately 2,500 records are added per year.

Women's Studies Database

Women's Studies Database (1972-present) is compiled by Jeanne Guillaume, Women's Studies Collection Librarian of New College, University of Toronto. WSD provides more than 52,000 records drawn from 125 journals worldwide. Coverage includes humanities, social sciences, health, law, and information on grassroots feminism and feminist organizations. About 4,000 records are added per year.

Women Studies Librarian — 4 files from the University of Wisconsin:

New Books on Women & Feminism (1987-present) is the complete guide to feminist publishing and provides 22,000 citations. About 2,800 records are added per year.

WAVE: Women's Audiovisuals in English: A Guide to Nonprint Resources in Women's Studies (1985-90) is a guide to 800 feminist films, videos, audiocassettes, and filmstrips. Includes distributor contact information.

Women, Race, and Ethnicity: A Bibliography (1970-90) is an annotated, selective bibliography of 2,400 books, journals, anthology chapters, and nonprint materials.

The History of Women and Science, Health, and Technology: A Bibliographic Guide to the Professions and the Disciplines (1970-95 — selective coverage) is an excellent tool for curriculum development, providing over 2,350 records from biographical and historical books and articles.

Women of Color and Southern Women: A Bibliography of Social Science Research

Women of Color (1975-present) is produced by the Research Clearinghouse on Women of Color and Southern Women at the University of Memphis in Tennessee and provides over 7,600 citations on eighteen different ethnic groups. About 500 records are added per year.

Women's Health and Development: An Annotated Bibliography

Women's Health (1995) provides 200 records drawn mainly from English-language journals and other holdings of the World Health Organization library in Geneva. The bibliography was compiled by the Division of Publishing, Language & Library Services, Office of Library & Health Literature Services, and is dedicated to the memory of the late chief of the library, Dr. Deborah Avriel (1935-95).
