FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

---

Volume 18, Number 4

Winter 1999

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of the new copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, preceded by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. U.S. subscription price(s).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Locations where the journal is held in the UW System.
10. Publications in which the journal is indexed.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal is to have represented in FP all English-language feminist periodicals with a substantial national or regional readership, with an emphasis on scholarly journals and small press offerings. We do not include publications which, though feminist in philosophy, do not focus solely on women's issues. Nor, with few exceptions, do we include newsstand magazines. We are also forced to omit periodicals which lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate the indexing feminist literature sorely needs.

Interested readers will find more complete information on feminist periodicals in DWM: A Directory of Women's Media published by the National Council for Research on Women (530 Broadway at Spring Street, New York, NY 10012); and in Women's Periodicals and Newspapers: A Union List of the Holdings of Madison Area Libraries, edited by James P. Danky, compiled by Maureen E. Hady, Barry Christopher, and Neill E. Strache (Boston: G.K. Hall, 1982).

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW-System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information. Feminist Periodicals is also available on microfilm at the library of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

11. "The Berkeley Women's Law Journal is guided by an editorial policy that distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist periodicals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore, discussions of women's issues that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions in inequality are continually changing, our mandate is also continually changing."

11. "Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

11. "The aim of Gender, Place and Culture is to provide the focal point for recent work concerned with gender issues in geography and related disciplines. Key concerns in this area include the following: geographical variations in gender divisions and structures of patriarchy; the cultural construction and the cultural politics of gender; the intersections between gender, 'race', ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, class, age and other social divisions. The journal will provide a forum for debate in human geography and related disciplines on these themes. By drawing together these contributions, the journal will highlight the relevance of geographical research to feminism and women's studies."

11. The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field -- in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

ON THE COVER:

"Now, let's toast to that!" SalvaDora and Alice coincide, clicking goblets of fine philter above well-seasoned leather, while Petra perches resplendent, bathed in turquoise and magenta, mistress of the mainmast, and whispers her command that Alice and SalvaDora thrill her by dancing another tango through the jewel box with extension, queenhood of the dolls.

3 Kol Ishah

News of Jewish women all over the world
Switzerland elects Jewish woman president • A mikveh library?
• Yemenite brides for sale • More women on boards! (Here's how.)

7 Letters

9 Introducing Noga

At last—a taste of Israel's Hebrew-language feminist magazine.

10 When the Mohel Is a Woman

by Ilana Trachtman with Sarah Blustein

As an ancient, boys-only rite of passage moves into the modern era, we have to wonder: What would Sigmund Freud have to say?

15 God No. 2

a poem by Lisa Bernstein

16 Out of the Silence, Out of the Flames

Two daughters tell Passover stories of personal Exodus.

The Morning My Father Met Ernest Hemingway on the Way to the Promised Land

by Judy Labensohn

After a lifetime of silence, an estranged daughter finally hears about her father's American odyssey.

Watching the Fire

by Helen Motro

What happened to one woman the day the Warsaw Ghetto burned.

22 When Our Parents Neglected Us to Save the World ...

a personal recollection by Rivka Ketzal Solomon

Radical Sixties parents spawn ideological Nineties daughter. Beyond anti-war activism and feminist consciousness-raising, what else did their legacy include? Plus Red Diapers, reviewed by Eleanor Bader.

26 Fighting Fascism

by Ian Halpern

Spanish Civil War. Lincoln Brigade. Guernica. The touchstones for generations of left-wing activist men. Sixty years after the fall of the Spanish Republic, we hear about the gutsy Jewish women who defied America in defense of democracy.

32 Cookies

by Sondra Spatt Olsen

A short story of dieting, craving—and mother's Toll House trap.

35 The Yoke

a poem by Lisa Bernstein

36 Reviews
