Feminist Periodicals

A Current Listing of Contents

Volume 28, Number 3 (Summer 2008)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Phyllis Holman Weisbard, UW System Women's Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu>
Compiler: Heather Shimon. Graphics: Daniel Joe.

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html>. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women's programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women's programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women's programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women's programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women's Studies Offices, UW Campus Women's Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at <http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259>.

It has been said that every child on Galiano learned to swim in Jane Rule and Helen Sonthoff's swimming pool. The couple bought their house on Galiano Island as a weekend getaway in the 1970s, fell in love with it and never left. Rule's legacy is explored in this intimate interview completed in the year before her passing.
by Joanne Bealy
- 28 ROAD WARRIORS
It is rarely a state of forever wedded bliss, the union of motorcycle and woman. As with all great relationships, there are there are highs and lows. There are moments a kick-start is needed—a good fight to reignite the love affair with our iron horse partner; a diversion from life's many other trials.

Rahel the Poet (1890–1931) was muse to a revolution, and lover to the first leaders of Israel. Meet her now, while the biopic is in production.

Lilith

Summer 2008
Volume 33, No. 2

In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said, "We are equal because we are created from the same earth."

Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b

10 Poverty? Housing? The Courts?

Which political imperatives drive you right now? Answers from Gloria Feldt, Nancy Ratzan, Rachel Tiven, Jane Kanarek, Catherine Schneider and Stefanie Greenberg.

16 The Pleasures of Politics

Peripatetic photographer Joan Roth follows some of the women who've heated up this political season. Their energies might just fuel our future.

20 The Principles of Uncertainty

by Maira Kalman

The artist who brought us New Yorkistan rummages around in her native Israel, painting what and whom she finds there. Even in uncertain times, some beautiful things haven't changed.

24 Fiction by Shoham Smith

"Someone to Talk to" and "A Short Story About a Long Scarf"
Read her for the first time ever in English, translated for Lilith by Naomi Danis.

30 After the Diagnosis...

by Karen Gilat

People often resist reaching out to families who have kids with autism—and there are a lot. A mother familiar with this isolation proposes a ritual, recasting Havdalah, to welcome autistic children into the Jewish community.

34 Anzia Yezierska and Me

by Patricia Averbach

Why, at 16, Averbach cut short her career as literary assistant to the author of Bread Givers, Hungry Hearts and Salome of the Tenements.

As a photographer, Melody Yazdani strives to capture the beauty and strength of pregnant women. She feels blessed to photograph such a moving subject, as pregnancy is an amazing and suspenseful time, and birth a culmination of months (or years) of anticipation. It is one of the most momentous occasions we will have the privilege to experience. Melody was able to capture the embodiment of the "pregnant glow" in this shot of Katherine. 18 Dear D

It can be hard to watch someone struggle with drugs and alcohol. Dear D answers your questions about teens and addiction.

21 The Lowdown on Stress, Anxiety, and Panic

What's stressful about being a teen? Everything, or at least that's how it sometimes feels. These teens share their experiences with stress, anxiety, and panic—and offer suggestions for how to cope.

26 When Sleeping Becomes a Nightmare

If you find yourself lying awake at night, you're not the only one. Find out how much sleep you need—and how to get it.

30 Above & Beyond

More than 20 million people in the U.S. struggle with asthma, but that doesn't make it any easier for teens who live with a disease that takes their breath away.

35 Teen Motherhood

When you're pregnant, you need to take care of yourself and your baby. Teen Voices tells you how to eat healthy for two and make time for you.

contents of our minds

regular features

6 Small World

There's more to Australia than kangaroos and crocodile hunters. These outspoken Australian teens fight back against stereotypes and give you the real scoop on Aussie life.

11 Food Corner

Teen Voices serves up fine Brazilian cuisine and culture with Cambridge-based chef and restaurant owner, Fatima Langa Gomes.

40 Arts & Culture

The books and CDs reviewed in this issue show that girls can do whatever they set their minds to—whether it's serving in the army, rockin' out, or solving mysteries!

42 Special Feature: Trapped in the Wrong Body

What happens when you know you're a girl, but you were born a boy? What's it like when your body doesn't match your spirit? Trans teens face these questions every day.

48 Cultural Harmony

Biracial and mixed teens are making their voices heard, telling the world exactly who they are.

departments

3 Girl Talk

Teen Voices investigates school lunch options around the country and finds out how healthy food is (or isn't) making its way to a cafeteria near you. And, if you've got health questions, we've got on-line resources with answers.

SHOUT Notes

Teen Voices was thrilled when Geena Davis invited us to Hollywood to share our opinions about girls in the media with some of the most influential people in film and television.

14 Love Poems

What does a poet do when love goes bad? She writes poems, of course.

52 Good Reading

These poets share their dreams and hopes for the future.

56 Say What

Advertisers are turning women into products...literally.

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

Appropriately social sciences research is reflecting this increasing concern with gender, especially in the field of work and organization where this journal is focused. Gender, Work and Organization is the first journal to bring together a wide range of interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary research in this field into a new international forum for debate and analysis. The journal is dedicated to advancing theory, research and applications concerning gender relations at work, the organization of gender, and the gendering of organizations. Contributions are invited from all disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, history, labour economics, law, philosophy, politics, psychology and sociology."

11. "Persimmon Tree showcases an impressive variety of literature and art by women over 60, many still working well into their 80s and 90s. Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women in much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

11. "Trivia: Voices of Feminism is a public forum for the creative and the critical thinking of that great diversity of women who insist on our primacy, and who in league with and in the name of all the other endangered species on the this planet, refuse to accept the life-destroying status quo. We publish feminist writing in the form of literary essays, experimental prose, poetry, translations, and reviews. We encourage women writers to take risks with language and forms so as to give their ideas the most original and vital expression possible. Our larger purpose is to foster a body of rigorous, creative and independent feminist thought."

11. "The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuing, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."
