

AMERICAN ORDNANCE ASSOCIATION

YANKEE POST

This is your Post. It is prepared to help you. The opportunities are many — don't miss them.

AMERICAN ORDNANCE ASSOCIATION

YANKEE POST

FALL MEETING

Symposium "Lowering Costs to Meet Competition"

WATERTOWN ARSENAL

THURSDAY

NOVEMBER 5, 1953

AMERICAN ORDNANCE ASSOCIATION

YANKEE POST

- OPEN HOUSE AT THE ARSENAL
- COCKTAILS AND DINNER
- ANNUAL MEETING
- SYMPOSIUM ON LOWERING COSTS

WATERTOWN ARSENAL
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1953

The Fall meeting of Yankee Post will be one of great variety, interest, sociability and benefit to you. You can't afford to miss it!

3 - 5:00 P.M. Between these hours, groups, as they form will be guided through the Arsenal. You must be identified by your A. O. A. tag. You will see outstanding exhibits, including the Atomic Cannon and demonstrations.

5:00 P.M. Cocktails at the Officers Club.

6:30 P.M. A famous Leo's roast beef dinner at the Officers Mess.

7:30 P.M. Annual Meeting.

7:40 P.M. Symposium on "Lowering Costs to Meet Competition."

This is a real opportunity for members to hear qualified speakers discuss the following subjects, and then to join with you in an open discussion. Some of the points brought out will benefit you! This is the first in a series of meetings which will combine informative discussions of subjects vital to you with interesting exhibits and social fellowship.

HEAR AND DISCUSS

Product Redesign, by L. D. Miles, Manager, Value Analysis Unit, General Electric Company, Schenectady.

Improved Production Tools and Methods by Irving Bob, President, Vogue Silver Company.

Improved Purchasing or Supplier Relationships by Paul B. Wilson, Procurement Director, Equipment Division, Raytheon Manufacturing Company.

Effective Use of Credit by Nicholas E. Peterson, Vice President, First National Bank of Boston.

Moderator: Dr. Joseph Harrington, Jr., Assistant Director of Research, United Shoe Machinery Company, who will integrate the separate discussions and get your replies to your questions.

Economy in Ordnance Operations and Procurement by Colonel Benjamin S. Mesick, Commanding Officer, Watertown Arsenal.

APPLY NOW! RESERVATIONS CLOSE NOVEMBER 1, 1953

YANKEE POST, AMERICAN ORDNANCE ASSOCIATION

c/o Mr. David Gilman, Eastern Fixture Company
170 Vernon Street, Boston, Massachusetts

Enclosed is check for tickets ($5.00) for Symposium and Annual Meeting at Watertown Arsenal, November 5, 1953.

Name Address