EDITORIAL POLICY

The Midwestern Archivist, a semi-annual journal published by the Midwest Archives Conference, is concerned with the issues and problems confronting the contemporary archivist. Articles relating to archival theory and current practice are solicited. Diversity among topics and points of view is encouraged, and material in a wide range of formats—including articles and essays, proceedings of seminars and workshops, review essays, and progress reports on special archival projects—will be considered for publication. Ideas and opinions expressed by contributors are not necessarily those of the Midwest Archives Conference or its Editorial Board.

Manuscripts should be sent to Mary Lynn Ritzenthaler, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle, Box 8198, Chicago, IL 60680. Decisions on manuscripts will be rendered within eight weeks of submission. Offers to review books or suggested books to review should be sent to Nicholas C. Burckel, Book Review Editor, University Archives, University of Wisconsin-Parkside, Kenosh, WI 53140.

The Midwestern Archivist is free to MAC members; single copies are available at $2.50. Inquiries regarding membership or purchase of the journal should be directed to James E. Fogerty, Secretary-Treasurer, Minnesota Historical Society, 1500 Mississippi Street, St. Paul, MN 55101.

Articles appearing in this journal are abstracted and indexed in Historical Abstracts and America: History and Life.
