A FEW NOTES ABOUT ROY E FOUNTAIN

An engineer

Age around 50

About 10 years of excellent GE experience developing and applying much better methods for preventing, or ending costs without lowering quality.

Resigned. Organized his own Co. "Value Programs for Industry" of which he was president. As consultants, provided superior teaching and leadership to client companies, largely industries throughout United States, for about ten years.

Established his own financial independence.

Sold his company recently, probably for tax benefits.

He is a man of high personal honor, high cooperativeness, great ability as a speaker and leader - a man of proven achievement.

Dear Roy:

I was delighted to hear from you and to hear of your discussion with Bill Beardslee. I think we can safely leave the initiative for collaboration in Bill's hands since he is thoroughly familiar with our plans for 1975.

You may know that Larry Miles has also been in touch on your behalf, and I find that many of our managers and consultants know your work most favorably. While it isn't necessary for us to meet and discuss your qualifications, I shall be most interested in learning of any arrangements that are developed to include you in some of our 1975 projects.

Be assured of my good wishes.

Sincerely,

jmg
