Feminist Periodicals

A Current Listing of Contents

Volume 30, Number 4 (Fall 2010)

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
5. Current editor.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
7. International Standard Serials Number (ISSN).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously "Other Libraries," "More Libraries," "Other Catalogs," "Other UW Catalogs," etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Phyllis Holman Weisbard, UW System Women's Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu>
Compiler: Heather Shimon. Graphics: Daniel Joe.

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at <http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html>. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women's programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women's programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women's programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women's programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women's Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women's Studies Offices, UW Campus Women's Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at <http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259>.

Front Cover

Shary Boyle, "Virus/White Wedding," 2009, plaster and lace, 76cm x 137cm x 46cm.

Back Cover

Shary Boyle, "The Rejection of Pluto," 2008, porcelain, enamel, gilt, mirror, and LED lights, 36cm x 25cm x 20cm. Commissioned by the Art Gallery of Ontario in response to their Foggini sculpture depicting the Greek myth, The Rape of Prosperine.

Shary Boyle is a Toronto-based artist whose practice includes drawing, painting, sculpture and performance. Her work is exhibited and collected internationally, with pieces in the National Gallery of Canada, Musée Des Beaux Arts, Montreal, the Paisley Museum in Scotland and the Winnipeg Art Gallery. In 2009 her work was featured at the Fumetto Festival in Lucerne, Switzerland, and included in the exhibition "The Likely Fate of the Man that Swallowed the Ghost" at the Centre Pompidou in Paris. Boyle is the 2009 recipient of Canada's Iskovitz Award. Shary Boyle's artwork appears also on pgs. 32, 71, 85, 100, 113.

Artist Statement: My work is representational and often figurative. Through art I attempt to invent an alternate world where life is more fierce, just and fantastical—one that speaks for women, animals, spirituality, the marginalized and otherworldly. Emotions such as grief, anger, loneliness and euphoria motivate my subjects. There is yearning for an unknown better world, a confrontation of injustice, and an imperative to illustrate female desire from a female perspective. Exploring social taboo, innovations in cross-media and unconventional methods of presentation are central to my practice.

16 WHY ORGANIC FOOD WILL SAVE THE WORLD
Environmentalism Vandana Shiva led successful grassroots movements against Wal-Mart in India and against multi-national companies' efforts to force farmers to use genetically modified seeds. Her mission is to ensure the biological diversity of agriculture—a cause in which women are front and centre.
by Brittany Shoot

20 THE CORRIDORS OF QUEER
What happens when a queer woman marries a man? As Ember Swift explains, the corridors of queer aren't wide enough for the experience of many.

24 TEGAN AND SARA
With six studio albums under their belt, Tegan and Sara will rock on the road with Lilith Fair this summer. Their latest offering, Sainthood, is the inspiration for this interview, in which Sara laments that there aren't enough women in the music business.
by Anna Lazowski

29 JUSTICE FOR ALL
Kim Campbell is alive and well and living in Paris. Canada's first female prime minister is more committed than ever to increasing the number of women in parliaments around the world—Canada's included.
by Lyn Cockburn

33 IRISH WOMEN STILL UNLUCKY
Irish women must go to England to terminate unwanted pregnancies. A three-woman case at the European Court of Human Rights may pave the way for the predominantly Catholic country to offer abortions at home.

vol. 35, no. 2

In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said, "We are equal because we are created from the same earth."

Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b

20 Tiles and Tribulations

by Dorothy Stern

Mah-jongg gave those 1950s Jewish women a room of their own—for as long as the game was in play. Sarah Blustein tells us why Mahj is back!

24 What's in That Diary?

by Amy Stone

At the American Jewish Historical Society, Lilith invites three dozen women in white gloves to pry into formerly hidden lives.

D-I-Y Parenthood

Doing it yourself can mean much more than selecting a sperm donor. These women are creating—and raising—wildly unconventional families.

33 Julie Greenberg:
Confidently Breaking the Norms

by Susan Schnur

How one mother, with a series of female lovers, two rabbinic sperm donors, two adoptions, and one gay parenting partner raises five exceptional kids.

37 Custom-Designed Motherhood

Susan Schnur talks with Jenifer Firestone, a kind-of-single mother, who, with exceeding clarity, chooses tribal parenting.

38 Express Male

by Avi Levinson

This sperm donor's story starts with a phone call and ends with a marriage.

- 26 Jailing Girls for Men's Crimes
BY CARRIE BAKER

Is an underage girl arrested for selling sex a criminal—or a victim of trafficking? Outraged activists want to send such girls to safe harbors, not jail.

- 32 Feminism in a Mad World

BY AVIVA DOVE-VIEBAHN

Mad Men's women remind us how far we've come, and how far we have to go.

- 36 The Feminist Food Revolution

BY JENNIFER COGNARD-BLACK

From farms to community gardens to restaurants, women are taking food back into their own hands. So why do men keep getting all the credit?

- 40 The Right of Every Woman

BY BELLE TAYLOR-MCGHEE

In Uganda, where maternal mortality is way too high, local communities dramatically get out the word about safe motherhood.

The characters in Mad Men include proto-feminist Peggy Olson (played by Elisabeth Moss, second from right). ▲

n. p a r a d o x a: Volume 26, Feminist Pedagogies, July 2010

Contents:

This new volume of n.paradoxa: international feminist art journal discusses both past and present teaching of feminist art in art history classes as well as the development of feminist art practices in studios and in workshops for women artists. The volume looks at a range of educational initiatives designed to focus on developing or mentoring women artists beyond formal education as well as the teaching of feminist art history and feminist theory both inside and outside a University setting.

Mónica Mayer 'Feminism and Art Education: from Loving Education to Education through Osmosis'

On organising feminist art workshops in California and Mexico for 30 years.

Griselda Pollock Opened, Closed and Opening: Reflections on Feminist Pedagogy in a UK University - on the history of teaching feminist art and theory and the MA Visual Arts and Feminism course.

Bridie Lonie and Susan Ballard Telling minor histories and writing theory practices: a conversation on feminist pedagogy from New Zealand

Laura Meyer with Faith Wilding Collaboration and Conflict in the Fresno Feminist Art Program in the 1970s: An Experiment in Feminist Pedagogy

Fabienne Dumont Nil Yalter: memory, migrants and workers in 1970s-1980s France

Stephanie Springgay The Lactation Station and A Feminist Pedagogy of Touch

Ulrike Rosenbach Schule für Kreativen Feminismus, Köln, 1976-1982

Alexis Kinloch MAWA: Successes, Crises and Issues after Twenty-Five Years of Feminist Mentoring in Canada

Hannah Kruse Goldrausch Kuenstlerinnenprojekt in Berlin – a network and training ground

Katie Cercone Aesthetics of Addiction: Marilyn Minter and the Legacy of Female Consumer Pathos

In Notes from the Front Line, n.paradoxa invited lecturers from different parts of the world to discuss their thoughts on teaching specific courses in feminist art history, theory and practice today:

Contributions are from: Irina Aristarkhova (USA), Suzana Milevska (Macedonia), Ana Martínez-Collado (Spain), Catriona Moore (Australia), Rebecca Jennison (Japan), Flaudette May Datuin (Philippines), Sarah Cohen (USA), Katrin Kivimaa (Estonia), Moira Vincentelli (UK), Peg Brand (USA), Nancy Macko (USA), Lourdes Mendez (Spain) and Brett van Hoesen (USA)

11. "Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women's and gender history focused on—and produced in—Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe. This region includes such countries as Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. In these countries the field of women's and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the "international" canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms "European women's history" into more than Western European women's history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe."

"Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

11. "The primary mission of Black Women, Gender & Families (BWGF) is to analyze, develop, and further Black Women's Studies paradigms. It centers the study of Black women and gender within the critical discourses of history, the social sciences, and the humanities. Second, this journal provides an Africana/Black Studies and Women's Studies cross-field and interdisciplinary venue for Black womanist and Black feminist theories, methodologies, and analyses. Third, it more fully integrates gender as an analytic category, and strengthens Black Women's Studies as a paradigm for studying black women, gender, families, and communities—especially policy-related issues within the broader disciplines of Black Studies and Women's Studies. Fourth, this journal provides the space for interdisciplinary, comparative/transnational studies of Global Africa/the African Diaspora and other women, families, and communities of color, using Black Women's Studies frameworks."

Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

"Early Modern Women: An Interdisciplinary Journal (EMWJ) is the only peer-reviewed academic journal devoted to the interdisciplinary and global study of women and gender during the years 1400 to 1700. Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome."

The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

"Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S."

It is an international forum for research on and debates about feminist research on gender and language. Gender is defined broadly, as a key element of social relationships often loosely linked to perceived differences between the sexes as well as a primary arena for articulating power in complex interaction with other dimensions of power, like class, race, and sexuality. It welcomes research employing and investigating a range of different linguistic approaches (including, but not only including, conversation analysis, critical discourse analysis, ethnography of communication, interactional sociolinguistics, linguistic anthropology, variationist sociolinguistics, stylistics and pragmatics) which focus on a range of different linguistic phenomena."

11. Hawwa publishes articles from all disciplinary and comparative perspectives that concern women and gender issues in the Middle East and the Islamic world. These include Muslim and non-Muslim communities within the greater Middle East, and Muslim and Middle-Eastern communities elsewhere in the world. Articles dealing with men, masculinity, children and the family, or other issues of gender are also considered. The journal strives to include significant studies of theory and methodology as well as topical matter. Approximately one-third of the submissions focus on the pre-modern era, with the majority of articles focusing on the contemporary age. The journal features several full-length articles and current book reviews. The majority of Hawwa's articles are in English. However, articles submitted in French are also considered.

"International Journal of Gender, Science and Technology (GST) is an open access, peer reviewed journal that welcomes contributions from practitioners, researchers and policy makers concerned with gender issues in and of science and technology, including engineering, construction and the built environment. Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers."

11. "Designed as a unique and much-needed resource for educators, managers, and policymakers, the Journal of Women and Minorities in Science and Engineering publishes original, peer-reviewed papers that report innovative ideas and programs for classroom teachers, scientific studies and formulation of concepts related to the education, recruitment, and retention of under-represented groups in science and engineering. Discipline-specific issues related to women and minorities are consolidated to address the entire educational environment for K through post-graduate and on to continuing education. The journal includes pertinent book reviews and 'reports from the field' by women and men of color in academe, business, industry, and federal and state agencies."

Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women is much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children.... [its] women-centered perspective...allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit.... To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

11. "The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuing, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."
