Dear Mr. Miles:

Thank you for your letter of November 27 to which you attached a copy of your recent talk to our group in Davenport, along with your "Tests For Value" certificate. I very much appreciate receiving these, and I am sure they will be of considerable value in my work.

I, too, enjoyed having you with us and want to thank you again for addressing our group.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Friske:

We are pleased to attach a copy of the talk which was very similar to the one given in Davenport together with a "Tests for Value" certificate.

It was a pleasure to be with you at your good meeting in Davenport.

Very truly yours,
