CLASSES

... Mingle shades of joy and woe,
Hope and fear, and peace, and strife,
In the thread of human life.

SCOTT
Seniors

Like our shadows, our wishes lengthen as our sun declines...

You are

These are the survivors and I am among them...

seminars professors and coffee...

I had this little boy in the third row who...

then: teas banquets speeches music and flashbulbs...

now: past tense except friendships... and the lines scatter.

Where there is much light, the shadows are deepest...

Goethe

Now heavy, dark lines not bending to mediocrity... endless discussions with basis and logic... again, meetings, trips to the health cottage 11:59 good-nights... studies faces now friends... a synthesis of goals actions and self... I am an individual near the end of the maze.

A get-acquainted picnic
We read the past by the light of the present and the forms vary as the shadows fall...

FROUDE

Summer... gone...
more lines...
Crane Brinton
Will Durant
the big questions...
a new cosmology...
where am I going
how do I get there...
term papers
critiques
a thirty-hour day...
decorating the gym
button, frosh
dorm open-house...
go south "to see who's there"
the beginnings of belonging
yet, where is the individual...
more faces, places
campaigns
conventions
reports...

Faculty Frolics

As the year grew short, students were anxious to see various faculty members — talented and otherwise — reveal a nondescript portion of faculty life, the "Unteachables." This vast project, held on April 14, was undertaken as the faculty’s part in raising money to contribute to the "Feed the Falcon" fund. A sum of $826.01 was turned over by directors Mr. Wayne Wolfe and Dr. Edward Peterson to the Student Foundation Committee for this purpose.
