Dear Mr. & Mrs. Miles:

First of all, I must apologize for my long silence. Next, my wife and I are hoping that this letter will find you both in the best of health. As for us, we are both fortunately enjoying good health. As usual, I am fully occupied with teaching and Value Engineering activities, with which I am quite satisfied.

I am very happy to learn that you will honor us with your participation at the coming 10th National Value Engineering Conference to be held in Tokyo on 26th and 27th of this month.

Needless to mention, I am looking forward to the happy reunion with you on that occasion. We will undoubtedly have many common topics of conversation, including Value Engineering.

Wishing you a most pleasant journey,

Yours sincerely,

Takshiko Tanaka
