CONFERENCE NOTES

The Conference Office is Room 115 in Lowell Hall, Phone number 263-2986. The office will be open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. during the days of the conference.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION: Please be sure to register -- all guests and participants, including students. Pick up Conference materials at the Registration Table in the Main Lounge Area.

COOKING DEMONSTRATION: A demonstration of South Asian Cooking with Professor Christopher King of Windsor University, Windsor, Ontario, Canada, as Instructor, will be video-taped Saturday at 2:00 p.m. A limited number of participants are sought. Check at the Conference Office for admission cards.

TEXTILE EXHIBIT -- October 12 through November 7: Examples from Helen Louise Allen Textile Collection which is housed in the Home Economics Building on the Madison campus are on exhibit at the Memorial Union Art Gallery. The exhibit, titled "Village Crafts: Textiles of South Asia", is examples of craft and materials used in daily life. Vivid color, design and creative use of materials are highlights of the exhibit as are weaving and dying techniques. The Union is at 800 Langdon St., and the exhibit is open for viewing from 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

BOOK DISPLAY: A group of batik illustrations depicting events in the life of the Medieval Poetess Nara Bai is displayed in the Main Lounge at Lowell Hall. Artist Pat Milrod provides a brief explanation of the poetess with a poem translated by Professor Neha Nihalani in a handout flyer which is available at the Registration Desk in the Main Lounge Area.

OTHER DISPLAYS:

Room 116 Lowell Hall is the place to go to view books brought to the conference by Sakti Book Shop Manager Mr. Bob Holland. Sakti Book Shop is located at 320 State St.

A collection of old South Asian Coins is on display in the Conference Office, Room 115.

Children's books from India are on display in the Conference Office, Room 115.

Teaching materials and books may be viewed Friday at the Wisconsin Center, 702 Langdon St., in Room 311, in conjunction with the Education Workshop.

FILM STRIPS -- INDIA: TRADITION AND CHANGING -- may be viewed in Room 117 in Lowell Hall throughout the day, Saturday, November 5. Producer Philip Ludendorff will be available to answer questions and visit with persons who wish to view the film strips individually.

FILMS: "Ankur" and "Garam Hawa", will be shown alternately throughout the day both Friday and Saturday in the Wisconsin Center Auditorium, 702 Langdon St. A donation of $1.00 at the door will help to defray the cost of these commercial feature-length films. The schedule is:
