THE CORNERSTONE: Lowell Hall's weekday cafeteria, will be open for lunch service on Friday, November 5, from 11:30 to 12:30 in the Dining Room on the Lower Level. Friday features will be Nepali Tarkari with rice, Dal, Cold Bean Salad, and Carrot Halwa. Conference attendees are welcome to have lunch there.

NEPALI POTLUCK BUFFET DINNER: Madison students and faculty members of the Nepal Studies Association invite those interested in Nepal to a potluck dinner on Saturday evening, November 6, at 7:00 at Union South, 227 N. Randall Avenue. Check the "Today in the Union" board upon arrival at Union South for the room assignment. Madisonians are asked to bring their favorite dish (rice, curry, meat, salad, dessert) to pass. Guests, come as you are. Contact Conference Office for further details.

SLIDE LECTURES:
*Indian Sources for the 'Indian Style' in Early Chinese Sculpture" will be presented Saturday at 9:00 a.m. by John Huntington in Room 227 Wisconsin Center, (see page 21). The term, "Indian style," when used in relation to Chinese sculpture is a catchall for what would better be termed "non-Chinese" elements. However, in some cases truly Indian schools of art do seem to be the precedent for specific Chinese sculptural conventions. The presentation examines the Chinese evidence & relates specific Chinese conventions to specific Indian schools.

"The Bene-Israel & Other Jews of India" will be presented Friday at 12:00 Noon by Ezekiel Barber in Room B-1, Lowell Hall, (see page 12). This presentation will look at a community that now numbers about 4,000 in a population of almost 700 million.

POETRY READING: "A Caste of Thought," poems of Indian Meditation & History, in English, will be read by Patti Lobo-Cobb on Friday at 12:00 Noon in the Lower Lounge, Lowell Hall, (see page 12).

ANCILLARY GROUP MEETINGS:
The Nepal Studies Association will hold a business meeting Friday noon, (see page 12). The organization is also sponsoring a series of panels, (see page 25).

The American Nepal Educational Foundation is holding two meetings on Friday afternoon. The Grants Meeting is to discuss specific matters of concern only to ANEF grantees. This will be followed by an Open Meeting to discuss matters pertaining to ANEF scholarship aid for Nepalese. This will be of interest to possible applicants & their advisors, (see page 17).

The University of Wisconsin College-Year-In-India Program is holding its 21st Reunion in conjunction with this year's Conference. Alumni/ae of the Program are presenting a series of panels and events, (see page 5).

DISPLAYS:

Numismatics: An exhibit introducing the Standard Guide to South Asian Coins & Paper Money Since 1556 A.D. will be displayed. Published last May by Krause Publications of Iola, Wisconsin, it is a specialized catalog covering all forms of numismatic material pertaining to the various nations of the sub-continent, including princely states & feudalatories, from the Moghul Empire to the present. The exhibit, which also includes representative examples of South Asian coins & currency, is presented by William P. Spengler, one of the four co-authors of the book, & can be seen in the Lowell Hall Main Lounge Area.

Indian Matchbox Label Display: Labels of various styles -- old & new -- collected recently from paanwallas, cigarette sellers & general merchants all over India by Ken Swift, will be displayed in the Lowell Hall Main Lounge Area.

"College-Year-in-India Tutorial & Fieldwork Projects: A Photographic Essay" will be on display in the Lowell Hall Main Lounge Area. Colorful photos of College Year students in India as photographed by Ken Swift & Joseph W. Elder.

"Refugees in South Asia" & "Displaced Children of Asia" are two photographic displays done by Kris Rocker, Berkeley, CA (College-Year-in-India alumna 1966-67). They will be on exhibit in Room B-1, Lowell Hall.

Books & educational materials are on display in Rooms 115, 116 & 117 Lowell Hall, from: South Asian Area Center, Southeast Asian Center, South Asia Books, Motilal Banarsidas, Asian Humanities Press, Hindustan Publishing Corp. (India), Graeme Vanderstoel, The Asia Society, the Center for Afghanistan Studies, School for International Training, South Asia Resource Center of the University of Washington.

A display depicting the new traveling textile exhibit from the Univ of Washington’s South Asia Resource Center, will be in the Lowell Hall Main Lounge Area. A display of contemporary Rajasthani paintings in traditional style, recently acquired by Carol Hansen, will be on exhibit in Lowell Hall.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION: A MEDIA/LECTURE: "Getting Bharat Into a Film Can" will be presented by Michael Camerini & James MacDonald on Sunday from 3:30 to 10:00 a.m. in Room B-1, Lowell Hall, (see page 31).

CULTURAL PERFORMANCE: The College-Year-in-India Program will present "Performances of Some Classical Arts of India" on Saturday evening in the Wisconsin Center Auditorium at 8:00 p.m., (see page 30).

AN ILLUSTRATED PRESENTATION entitled "The Leuven Text-Composition System in Devanagari" will be given by Winand M. Callewaert on Friday at 12:00 Noon in Room 426, Lowell Hall. The presentation will look at results of text-analysis of Hindi texts in Devanagari with the computer (see page 12).

ABOUT THE COVER

This year’s calligraphic program cover was designed by Professor Muhammad Umar Memon of the Department of South Asian Studies, University of Wisconsin-Madison. The stylized Urdu script calligraphy along the sides was designed by Professor Memon and reads, in Urdu, "gyārvān sālāna junūbī ašāyī'ī kānfarān" or "11th Annual Conference on South Asia." It is read from right to left so it reads from bottom to top on the fold side of the cover and from top to bottom on the outside edge. Urdu script was derived from Arabic script.

The calligraphic design in the center was chosen by Professor Memon for its beauty and for its appropriate meaning for a conference. In Arabic, it reads: "wa qul, 'Rabbī Zidnī 'Ilman!" which translates "And say, 'My Lord, increase me in knowledge!" This design was done by Mamoun Sakkal, a professional calligrapher from Seattle, Washington, and is a portion of a larger design printed on the cover of the July 1982 Middle East Studies Association Bulletin. The Association has kindly given us permission to reprint it in part here.

Our thanks to Bob Patterson for the technical assistance and preparation work on the program cover again this year.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Judy Patterson, Conference Coordinator, South Asian Area Center
A.W. Hanson-Barber, Conference Assistant

With many thanks to the Staff of the Department of South Asian Studies and to our many student volunteers, all of whom help to make this Conference a success.
