Dear Mr. Miles:

I am sorry that I have been delayed in thanking you for the very fine talk you gave our Capital District Food Executives group on May 2nd.

Your message does apply to our business. Everyone in any business should evaluate his efforts and product more often.

We appreciate the time you gave us and I know each one of us learned a great deal.

Sincerely,

J.G. Fleischman

My dear Mr. Miles,

I should like to express the thanks of the members of the Capital District Food Executives Association for your kindness in speaking to us at our May meeting in Schenectady.

Your interesting discussion of product analyses and cost-cutting so paralleled our particular problems that I'm certain each of us left the General Electric Company that night, stimulated to go home and find where we, ourselves have been needlessly spending money.

Thank you, again, for your help, and for finding time in your busy schedule to spend with us.

Very sincerely yours,

M. Jane Mulvey
