Dear Herbert;

A quick note as we leave for Europe at 7 in the morning.

Thank you for clear and complete knowledge. No use for me, at the moment, to comment further on the situation. Like you, we have absorbed the shock and are making new plans.

All of your suggestions for the future sound good. As soon as I return - about Nov. 1 - I'll carry through on your good ideas. I'll investigate visual-aids and report to you on the most suitable ones. I'll determine just where is the best place for you to order books, and advise you, etc etc.

So, until then - altho we'll be thinking about you folks often, I'll say "so long for now",

Sincerely,

Larry Miles
