PRINCIPLES AND STANDARDS
OF PURCHASING PRACTICE
ADVOCATED BY
National Association of Purchasing Agents

LOYALTY TO HIS COMPANY
JUSTICE TO THOSE WITH WHOM HE DEALS
FAITH IN HIS PROFESSION

From these principles are derived the N.A.P.A. standards of purchasing practice.

[1] To consider, first, the interests of his company in all transactions and to carry out and believe in its established policies.

[2] To be receptive to competent counsel from his colleagues and to be guided by such counsel without impairing the dignity and responsibility of his office.

[3] To buy without prejudice, seeking to obtain the maximum ultimate value for each dollar of expenditure.

[4] To strive consistently for knowledge of the materials and processes of manufacture, and to establish practical methods for the conduct of his office.

[5] To subscribe to and work for honesty and truth in buying and selling, and to denounce all forms and manifestations of commercial bribery.

[6] To accord a prompt and courteous reception, so far as conditions will permit, to all who call on a legitimate business mission.

[7] To respect his obligations and to require that obligations to him and to his concern be respected, consistent with good business practice.

[8] To avoid sharp practice.

[9] To counsel and assist fellow purchasing agents in the performance of their duties, whenever occasion permits.

[10] To co-operate with all organizations and individuals engaged in activities designed to enhance the development and standing of purchasing.

VALUE ANALYSIS—WHY?

Mr. Whitehouse is the Fifth District Chairman of the Value Analysis-Standardization Committee of the National Assn. of Purchasing Agents. His appointment to this high office was the natural result of his vigorous leadership of the Carolinas-Virginia Purchasing Agent’s Assn. He served this group as chairman of most of its committees, leading to its presidency and national directorship. His vigorous efforts have produced intense activity on Value Analysis and Standardization in all of the Fifth District, which includes the Washington, D. C. Assn.

VALUE ANALYSIS—HOW?

Mr. Miles is the recognized authority on Value Analysis and Engineering in this country. His methods and techniques have eliminated millions of dollars of costs from his company’s products. He received the General Electric Charles A. Coffin Award in 1949 as recognition for his achievements. The award honors the memory of the first president of the company. The Navy Distinguished Public Service Award was presented to Mr. Miles in 1958. He is well known to most professional organizations and is much in demand as a speaker.
