FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 33
Numbers 1-2
Winter-Spring 2013

University of Wisconsin System
Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women’s scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women’s culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women’s Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers’ familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.
Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously “Other Libraries,” “More Libraries,” “Other Catalogs,” “Other UW Catalogs,” etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Karla J. Strand, UW System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: http://womenst.library.wisc.edu

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women’s Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women’s Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women’s programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women’s programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women’s programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women’s programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women’s Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women’s Studies Offices, UW Campus Women’s Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259.

Ourselves Unborn: A History of the Fetus in Modern America by Sara Dubow

It is the policy of the Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice not to draw a distinction between student pieces and the work of scholars, practitioners, and community workers. This policy reflects our belief that in a struggle for equality all efforts are of equal value and importance.

House Rings for a New Marriage Ritual

The House Rings Miracle
by Abigail Rome
In which a very modern wedding is blessed by antiquity. Read it and find out what happened.

Pioneering Men, Step Up to the Plate!
by Susan Schnur
A totally new (egalitarian) wedding vow, for use with your house ring.

A Marriage Agreement
by Alix Katz Shulman
Reprising a 1970s classic, still crazy-making after all these years.

Postmodern House Rings
What motivates the artists who create them?

20
My Welfare Mom, Our Food Stamps, and Why I’m a Marginal Jew
by Andrea Kott
Class, caste, and cleaning the toilets at Brandeis. Feeling always illegitimate as a Jew, and now a parent herself, Kott approaches Judaism tentatively, suspiciously, and yearningly.

26
A Mother Sees Her Child Through Transgender Surgery
by Judy Sennesh
Her daughter becomes her son, but Sennesh remains constant; “too calm,” her kid says. And parents of LGBTQ children get an instruction manual in “Casual Coming-Out Comments” by Catherine Tuerk—wise advice on how to let the world know your child is gay or lesbian.

34
Gender and Generosity in Israel
by Elana Sztkman
An activist starts a women’s fund in Modi’in and discovers that kindness and cooking are the coin of the realm for women. How’s that gonna drive systemic change in women’s lives?

3

Masha Gessen Takes on Vladimir Putin
by Sasha Senderovich
The activist and journalist who unmasked the president of Russia now hopes for a new Russian revolution.

20
Consent and the Single Girl
by Gabrielle Birkner
Getting to yes, no, or maybe isn’t as easy as those campus posters suggest. What does consent mean to Jewish women in those years between Hillel and the huppah? A batch of 20- and 30-somethings gathered one evening to talk about how to talk about it.

26
Raising Survivors
by Deb Levy
Writing the biography of a child survivor of the Holocaust, she imagines the unimaginable—would her own little boys have made it through?

29
Returning to the Garden
by Chana Widasuki
Outside New York, Toronto and Baltimore, Jews are farming in communities that merge ecology and social justice. Plus Alisha Kaplan on why her mom bought the farm—literally; and Lincoln Schnur Fishman on getting an ethical lunch.

34
A THINK TANK ON JEWISH DIVORCE
Getting to the Gett
by Deborah Shubowitz
One woman struggles because her Orthodox husband won’t give her a gett. Another was coerced into accepting hers. If you’re female, you can be damned if you don’t—and, damned if you do, too.

Man’s Absolute Right Is Absolutely Wrong
by Blu Greenberg
Once optimistic, a longtime Orthodox feminist activist hits bottom on the issue of chained women—agnunot—trapped by Jewish law. Her prescription for recalcitrance: “Remove power from the husband.”

3 From the Editor
Susan Weidman Schneider on what it means when our shoes hobble our freedoms.

26 MS. SPECIAL: ELECTION SECTION
Women's Lives in the Balance
BY BETH BAKER
What's at stake for women voters? Oh, just little things such as legal equity, health care and decision-making over our bodies.

Women on the Run
BY DEBORAH WALSH AND KATHERINE KLEEMAN
Women are running for office in record numbers this year. Will they change the political process as well as policy?

Know Your November Ballot
Learn about many of the state ballot initiatives and referenda that affect women's lives—and find out which ones Ms. endorses!

WOMEN'S STUDIES

38 So You Want to Change the World?
Nine scholars reflect on the burgeoning global, activist field of women's studies and how it's transforming students, universities, communities and feminism itself.
Free to Be...You and Me taught girls and boys they could be anything they wanted to be.

40TH ANNIVERSARY

48 We've Only Just Begun
By Katherine Spillar
Ms. has chronicled how women have gone from second-class citizens to fierce feminist warriors—and we continue to sound the alarms, rally the troops and celebrate progress.

Halfway Into a Feminist Century
By Gloria Steinem
Previous social movements have taken 100 years to fully succeed; so what leaps are we going to take during the next 50 years of feminism?

The “Happy Birthday!” Letters
Our readers tell us how Ms. magazine changed their lives.

The Time of Our Lives
Forty years and 40 Ms. moments—with key events in the struggle for women's rights

11. "Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women’s and gender history focused on—and produced in—Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe. This region includes such countries as Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. In these countries the field of women’s and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the "international" canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms "European women’s history" into more than Western European women’s history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe."

8. OCLC 11830558.
10. Lexis-Nexis Academic Universe.
11. “Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women’s Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving.”

10. "Eighteenth-Century Women, a hardcover serial publication from AMS Press, publishes articles and book reviews in the fields of literary, biographical, bibliographical, social, and cultural history. It focuses on women in Great Britain, Europe, the Americas, and the rest of the world during the "long" eighteenth century, extending roughly from the restoration of the English monarchy (1660) to the death of Jane Austen (1817). The Journal Aims to be a record of women’s lives and accomplishments, not only as essayists, novelists, playwrights, poets, translators, pamphleteers, letter-writers, and journalists, but also as mothers, wives, daughters, queens, princesses, reformers, business owners, educators, socialites, ladies of the manor, ladies of the night, intellectuals, natural philosophers, travelers, theater managers, actresses, musicians, artists, artisans, consumers, arbiters of taste, and promoters of fads, fashions, and morals."

11. Hawwa publishes articles from all disciplinary and comparative perspectives that concern women and gender issues in the Middle East and the Islamic world. These include Muslim and non-Muslim communities within the greater Middle East, and Muslim and Middle-Eastern communities elsewhere in the world. Articles dealing with men, masculinity, children and the family, or other issues of gender are also considered. The journal strives to include significant studies of theory and methodology as well as topical matter. Approximately one-third of the submissions focus on the pre-modern era, with the majority of articles focusing on the contemporary age. The journal features several full-length articles and current book reviews. The majority of Hawwa's articles are in English. However, articles submitted in French are also considered.

"International Journal of Gender, Science and Technology (GST) is an open access, peer reviewed journal that welcomes contributions from practitioners, researchers and policy makers concerned with gender issues in and of science and technology, including engineering, construction and the built environment. Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers."

9. "The Journal of Feminist Scholarship is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal published online and aimed at promoting feminist scholarship across the disciplines, as well as expanding the reach and definitions of feminist research. We conceive the mission of the JFS as an exploration of the state of feminist scholarship at the turn of the new century, and we see this endeavor as part of a larger question of where feminism itself is heading. We wish to encourage a discussion of feminist thought for the twenty-first century. What are its directions today, and what relationship does it sustain with the foundations laid down by feminist inquiry and action of earlier centuries? We aim to publish work that explores the multiple theoretical paradigms and political agendas of contemporary and historical feminist scholarship and the potential intersections and tensions between these paradigms and agendas. We are especially interested in examining productive controversies and divergences between local and global contexts of feminism. We also welcome submissions that focus on feminist pedagogies and activism."

“Journal of International Women’s Studies” is the only professional journal devoted exclusively to the lesbian experience. The content of articles focuses primarily on women who identify as lesbians. The journal serves as a vehicle for the promotion of scholarship and commentary on lesbianism from an international perspective.

Carol Shelton or Virginia Walsh.

The Journal of Interdisciplinary Feminist Thought (JIFT) is a peer-reviewed, online publication, provides a forum for scholars in any field to contribute research related to women’s issues. Each issue has a specific focal topic selected by the editors. Contributions are solicited from authors in different disciplines working together on the focal topic, from individuals in various fields of study, and from researchers working with students. The multidisciplinary approach gives a wide perspective on the focal topic.

11. Nora is a new interdisciplinary journal of women’s studies, published in English and international in scope, which is to be a channel for women’s research from all disciplines. Emphasis is placed on showing a Nordic profile in women’s research, with regard to both content and methodological approaches. Nora aims to discuss and examine the realities and myths of women’s lives in the Nordic countries, historically and today, while at the same time offering a forum for theoretical debate, dialogue and information on research of a general interest to feminist scholars and scientists. Nora encourages papers that have a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective and are theoretically self-reflective.”

Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women in much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . [its] women-centered perspective. . . . allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

10. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."

10. Features theoretical and critical articles, poetry, fiction, art, reviews, and translations of women’s writing. "13th Moon is the oldest continuously published feminist literary magazine of those founded in the 1970’s revival of feminism. Its field of scholarship is literature and graphic art by contemporary women. . . .” 13th Moon provides a forum for material often neglected by the larger culture which does not bear women’s concerns in mind, and by translators of foreign language literatures who overtook the work of contemporary women writers. It is committed to publishing the work of minority women, lesbians, and women of color, and has published “. . . a large selection of writers who are either ‘new formalists’ or experimentalists. . . .”

10. "The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuing, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."
