Feminist Periodicals
A Current Listing of Contents

Volume 33
Numbers 3–4
Summer–Fall 2013

University of Wisconsin System
Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women’s scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women’s culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Women’s Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers’ familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.
Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously “Other Libraries,” “More Libraries,” “Other Catalogs,” “Other UW Catalogs,” etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Karla J. Strand, UW System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: http://womenst.library.wisc.edu

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Women’s Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women’s Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. Subscription rates: Wisconsin subscriptions: $10.00 (individuals affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (organizations affiliated with the UW System), $20.00 (individuals or non-profit women’s programs), $30.00 (institutions). Out-of-state subscriptions: $35.00 (individuals & women’s programs in the U.S.), $65.00 (institutions in the U.S.), $50.00 (individuals & women’s programs in Canada/Mexico), $80.00 (institutions in Canada/Mexico), $55.00 (individuals & women’s programs elsewhere outside the U.S.), $85.00 (institutions elsewhere outside the U.S.). Wisconsin subscriber amounts include state tax (except UW organizations amount). Feminist Periodicals was originally a print publication (ISSN 0742-7433) from v.1, n.1, 1981 through v.27, n.4, Fall 2007. Printed back issues of these issues are available for $10 each. All prices include postage. Publications of the Office of the UW-System Women’s Studies Librarian are available free of charge to UW Women’s Studies Offices, UW Campus Women’s Centers, and UW Libraries.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259.

In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said, "We are equal, we come from the same earth."
Title: LILITH: INDEPENDENT, JEWISH & FRANKLY FEMINIST
Issue: v. 38, no. 1, Spring 2013

10
Period Envy
by Sheila Solomon Shotwell
Who knew that pre-adolescent girls could be so fascinated by all the paraphernalia of periods yet to come? Shotwell revisits her childhood fascination with all things Tampax.

16
Our Violent Children
by Ilana Kramer
Five brave Jewish mothers, juggling feelings of love and fear, tell how they’ve survived raising sons who are full of rage. Beyond shunning and judging, what can the community really do to help the families and the boys? And what emotions are we allowed to express as Jews? Rabbi Simkha Weintraub has some suggestions.

24
Reading George Eliot in Jerusalem
by Ilana Blumberg
From just one clue, a fan of the nineteenth-century feminist novelist finds herself inexplicably linked to two Jewish feminist leaders, Alice Shalvi and Aivah Zornberg.

27
Truth or Dare
by Jessica Berger Gross
A very modern take on kibbutz sex. In this memoir, a 21-year-old American volunteer steps out of character—only to discover that an adventurous quartet might suit her after all.

30
The Rabbi and the Prisoner
Rabbi Laurie Rice befriends a Jewish woman who is behind bars. They talk about being invisible to other Jews, Judaism in jail, and the hidden stories we on the outside never hear.

34
Plotless
by Lori Wald Compton
As a young widow, Compton purchased a double cemetery plot, one for her recently deceased spouse, one for her future self. Then she fell in love again. Here, her grave anxieties.

45
Something That Happened
by Liana Finck
This graphic novelist draws on the streets of New York.

3
From the Editor
Susan Weidman Schneider on why women are so powerful in Jewish campus life now.

4
Voices
New Knesset members Ruth Calderon and Merav Michaeli speak their minds • Rabbis in red lipstick • Adoption myths • Feminism and Jews in Vienna • And more!

48
Childless by Choice
by Diane Balser
A 60-something woman goes back to Jewish texts and reaffirms her decisions.
16 Great Expense, Great Expectations: Motherhood in the Lean-In Era
by Gabrielle Birkner

In this report on nannies, nursery schools and national legislation, Birkner forecasts that the traditional Jewish preschool—retrofitted as a childcare center—may solve some of your problems. Then Elizabeth Mandel weighs in on the Jewish costs of Jewish education.

13 Poet Laureate Maxine Kumin: Celebrating My Confederate Great-Grandfather

Poetry by Maxine Kumin
Introduction by Susan Schnur

It was a wonderful surprise when Lilith received a manuscript from the venerable Kumin. “I’d been aware of Kumin’s feminist, and broadly maternal, sensibility, but not her Jewish one,” writes Schnur, “so I called PoBiz Farm to talk.”

26 Flesh and Blood
by Penny Wofson

The author inherited her father’s meat grinder, a reminder, literally, of flesh and blood. Now it sits on its side, an unused object of beauty, in her own kitchen, where she realizes that Jews think about meat more than most people.

36 Jewsies, Jewosity & Identity
by Zazi Pope

From Vienna to Appalachia, why did her forebears keep secrets and make such strange choices? The remarkably suppressed identity of her concert-star grandmother, and how Zazi Pope found it out.

Fiction Prize Winners

10 Angel

4 Voices
Speaking to men about sex slavery • Lilith in Germany • The art of getting dressed • Writing a cookbook • Economic empowerment via handicrafts • And more!

46 Happening
compiled by Naomi Danis

Current feminist Jewish events.

48 Not Your Zayde’s Shokl
by Stacey Zisook Robinson

A new way a woman can move when she’s moved—the kinesthetics of feminist prayer.
In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said, “We are equal, we come from the same earth.”

10

Gender and Genius
by Esther Sperber

What women architects can teach us about “relational creativity” and how we define achievement.

Melissa Tapper Goldman connects Jews, architecture and feminism.

31

by Liz Safirstein Lesbin

Rabbis, restauranteurs, radical filmmakers. From Sharon Brous to Jill Soloway, how did Los Angeles become the source of all this woman-led, game-changing, Jewish energy?

38

Erica Jong’s Fear of Flying at 40
by Aryanna Garber

Though initially categorized as smut, the screaming, liberating voices of this body-and-soul narrative can’t be silenced. Find out why.

OUR REPRODUCTIVE SELVES

15 Before Adam v. Eve, Before Roe v. Wade, There Was Merle Hoffman, Abortion Foremother

She opened an abortion clinic in New York City two years before Roe granted legality across the U.S. Susan Schuur adapts Hoffman’s recent autobiography, with its bravery and bullet-proof vests shining through.

19 Ambivalence: When the Abortion on the Table Is Your Own
by Deborah Eisenbach-Budner with Rabbi Susan Schuur

The author, who has two children and a husband, wrestles her way towards choosing to abort. Plus a prayer to say during one’s abortion.

22 Generation I.V.F.: Making a Baby in the Lab
by Miriam Zell

The risky, costly, frustrating pursuit of high-tech motherhood. Caeveat emptor!

26 Don’t Say “Vagina”
by Sarah Erdreich

The 10 most ridiculous new anti-abortion laws (with the 11th no doubt coming to your neighborhood soon).

27 Not Generation Roe, Not Generation I.V.F. Meet Generation Midwifery

Jessica Angelos talks to Susan Schuur

Are twenty-somethings dropping the ball on reproductive rights activism? Nope. They’re busy birthing a whole new role for nurses.

3 From the Editor

Susan Weidman Schneider looks at new Jewish population data from a feminist perspective.

4 Voices

Women cantors sing out • The value of diapers • What that Shlomo Carlebach musical leaves out • Rape on campus • Naming a chair for a woman

The Feminist Factor
BY ELEANOR SMEAL
As we move forward after the elections of 2012, it’s time to acknowledge that it wasn’t just women who made a critical difference in reelecting President Barack Obama, but feminists.

Here’s to the Women Who Won
BY ANITA LITTLE
Cheers for the new women in Congress, but we’re a long way from gender parity.

Sarah Weddington:
Still Arguing for Roe
BY MICHELE KORT
The woman who argued Roe v. Wade remembers both the triumph and the backlash.

36

Homeland Insecurity
BY JAKE BLUMGART
Did conservative political pressure above the investigation of right-wing, anti-abortion extremism under the rug at America’s top protection agency?

42

Back to the Kitchen
BY MARIA MCGRATH
Today’s proponents of a natural-food “revolution” sometimes forget history—and return us to patriarchal fantasies of happy housewives at their pot stoves.

11. “Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women’s Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving.”

11. "Columbia Journal of Gender and Law was founded to publish legal and interdisciplinary writings on feminism and gender issues and to expand feminist jurisprudence. Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

"Eighteenth-Century Women, a hardcover serial publication from AMS Press, publishes articles and book reviews in the fields of literary, biographical, bibliographical, social, and cultural history. It focuses on women in Great Britain, Europe, the Americas, and the rest of the world during the "long" eighteenth century, extending roughly from the restoration of the English monarchy (1660) to the death of Jane Austen (1817). The journal aims to be a record of women's lives and accomplishments, not only as essayists, novelists, playwrights, poets, translators, pamphleteers, letter-writers, and journalists, but also as mothers, wives, daughters, queens, princesses, reformers, business owners, educators, socialites, ladies of the manor, ladies of the night, intellectuals, natural philosophers, travelers, theater managers, actresses, musicians, artists, artisans, consumers, arbiters of taste, and promoters of fads, fashions, and morals.

11. "Feminist Legal Studies" contains articles, essay reviews, book reviews and case-notes on aspects of law, legal theory and legal practice relevant to feminist work. The journal is committed to an international perspective and to the promotion of feminist work in all areas of law. The editorial board encourages the submission of papers from people working outside the academy, as well as academics other than 'lawyers'. Although the focus of the journal is law, we encourage interdisciplinary work addressing the concerns not only of lawyers but others, women and men, interested in feminist work.*

11. "Feminist Media Studies" provides a transdisciplinary, transnational forum for researchers pursuing feminist approaches to the field of media and communication studies, with attention to the historical, philosophical, cultural, social, political, and economic dimensions and analysis of sites including print and electronic media, film and the arts, and new media technologies. The journal invites contributions from feminist researchers working across a range of disciplines and conceptual perspectives. Feminist Media Studies offers a unique intellectual space bringing together scholars, professionals and activists from around the world to engage with feminist issues and debates in media and communication. Its editorial board and contributors reflect a commitment to the facilitation of international dialogue among researchers, through attention to local, national and global contexts for critical and empirical feminist media inquiry.*

11. "Feminist Studies" was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women's experiences but to change women's condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action."

It is an international forum for research on and debates about feminist research on gender and language. Gender is defined broadly, as a key element of social relationships often loosely linked to the perceived differences between the sexes as well as a primary arena for articulating power in complex interaction with other dimensions of power, like class, race, and sexuality. It welcomes research employing and investigating a range of different linguistic approaches (including, but not only including, conversation analysis, critical discourse analysis, ethnography of communication, interactional sociolinguistics, linguistic anthropology, variationist sociolinguistics, stylistics and pragmatics) which focus on a range of different linguistic phenomena."

11. "Hypatia is a forum for cutting edge work in feminist philosophy. Since its inception in 1986 as an independent journal, Hypatia has been both a catalyst for broadening and refining feminist philosophy, and an invaluable resource for those who teach in this area. Feminist philosophy arises out of diverse traditions and methods within philosophy, and is also richly interdisciplinary in orientation; we are committed to publishing articles that are broadly accessible. Hypatia serves as a resource for the wider women’s studies community, for philosophers generally, and for all those interested in philosophical issues raised by feminism."

Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers.”

11. "The Journal of Feminist Scholarship is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal published online and aimed at promoting feminist scholarship across the disciplines, as well as expanding the reach and definitions of feminist research. We conceive the mission of the JFS as an exploration of the state of feminist scholarship at the turn of the new century, and we see this endeavor as part of a larger question of where feminism itself is heading. We wish to encourage a discussion of feminist thought for the twenty-first century. What are its directions today, and what relationship does it sustain with the foundations laid down by feminist inquiry and action of earlier centuries? We aim to publish work that explores the multiple theoretical paradigms and political agendas of contemporary and historical feminist scholarship and the potential intersections and tensions between these paradigms and agendas. We are especially interested in examining productive controversies and divergences between local and global contexts of feminism. We also welcome submissions that focus on feminist pedagogies and activism."

The aim of Reproductive Health Matters is "to promote laws, policies, research and services that meet women's reproductive health needs and support women's right to decide whether, when and how to have children. . . . It allows us to identify and understand women's reproductive health needs, and therefore evaluate and improve on existing policy and practice to women's benefit. . . . To this end, the journal explores what is meant by women's needs and how these can best be met. It addresses fundamental values, concerns and dilemmas, acknowledging the multi-faceted nature of problems and solutions. Finally, it reflects on commonalities and differences in goals and points of view among those involved in the field – in order to foster increased communication and cooperation, new thinking and action, and new forms of consensus."

11. Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revisited and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate.

10. "The purpose of the journal is to encourage and promote an understanding of how visual culture constructs gender in context with representations of race, age, sexuality, social units, and social class. The significance of visual culture for art education rests not so much in the object or image, but in the learning and teaching processes or practices used to expose culturally learned meanings and power relations that surround the creation, consumption, valuation, and dissemination of images. Similarly, the significance of gender for art education involves issues of equity and social justice in the learning, teaching, and practicing of art."
