FEMINIST PERIODICALS
A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 34
Number 4
Fall 2014

University of Wisconsin System
Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women’s scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women’s culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers’ familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.
Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously “Other Libraries,” “More Libraries,” “Other Catalogs,” “Other UW Catalogs,” etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holding information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Karla J. Strand, UW System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone (608) 263-5754. Email: wiswsl@library.wisc.edu. Website: http://womenst.library.wisc.edu

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html. A subscription to the publications of the Office of the UW-System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women’s Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism along with email notification of each new issue of Feminist Periodicals. See subscription form here.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259.

by Brad Dunn

WOMEN WITH DISABILITIES:
The Fight for Dignity ................................. 21
In the wake of a 2013 coroner's report into the death of Ashley Smith at the Grand Valley Institution for Women, the need to improve treatment for women with mental disabilities in institutions came into the spotlight. Bonnie Brayton, executive director of the DisAbled Women's Network of Canada, talks about what it will take to make sure women with disabilities can obtain the supports and services they need.
by Sandhya Singh

DISHING OUT DOMESTIC NOSTALGIA ............. 24
Is the current fixation with all things feminine and retro an ironic nudge-nudge, wink-wink acknowledgment that women have never acquiesced into domestic bliss in the kitchen? It all depends, the author says, on whether we maintain a healthy respect for female camp in popular culture.

Title: LILITH: INDEPENDENT, JEWISH & FRANKLY FEMINIST
Issue: v. 39, no. 3, Fall 2014

10 Find Your Ferguson
by Susan Tave
In St Louis, the rabbi of the only congregation still within the city limits joins the protests against police violence and prays “with her feet.” What are the next steps for Jews?

LESS-OBSVIOUS PATHS TO JUDAISM

Art by Audrey Flack; her realism is influenced by how she reads women in the Bible.

14 Beyoncé and Moses
by Emilia Diamant
A self-styled millennial finds revelation—just like at Mt. Sinai—when a new album drops.

16 Sex and Judaism
Merissa Nathan Gerson
At an Orgasm Meditation conference (What?! #!), the author argues with Naomi Wolf, and does a mash-up of the divine feminine, Talmudic wisdom on sex, and her dad’s traditional Judaism.

20 Transitioning and Converting by Sam T.
“I was a man in transition, and I was going to welcome myself. I set out to find a community.”

24 Never Tell Anyone: A Comedienne Breaks Her Family Taboo
by Fennie Sheridan
Her stand-up shtick blows her traumatized family’s “Catholic” cover. Fear and fury ensue.

28 Say Yes to the Dress
by Shira Sternberg and Susan Schmer
Two unmarried sisters (no husbands in sight) make sure their dying dad sees them in their wedding dresses. What happens next requires a hanky.

31 My Jewish Feet
by Peggy Skinner
Her feet are flat. And what she thought was familial turns out to be tribal, at least in the minds of anti-Semites. Who knew?

36 The Tapestries of Berit Engen
Psalsms, Yiddish curses, dancing, skiing, exile, and Norwegian woods all get woven into the warp and woof of the fabric artist’s chosen Jewishness.

From the Editor
Susan Weidman Schneider on microeconomics: small-scale tzedakah decisions that power larger waves.

4 Voices
In Israel and Gaza, a man’s war • First female rabbis take Berlin • A gem of early childhood feminism from Sadie Rose Wellerstein • Trigger warnings • A murdered son, a teachable moment • What a grade school interview could ask you 50 years ago

26 The Lives Under the Stones
a short story by Amy Bitterman

34 The Coffee Drifts Down
These Long Bronx Halls into My Young Waking Nose; Equipment; Her Poem;
Worship
four poems by Anna Bat-Chai Wrabel

40 Reviews
Melanie Weiss on All I Love and Know • Chana Thompson Shor on Amy Kalmansofsky’s Dangerous Sisters of the Hebrew Bible • Ilana Kurshan on Maggie Anton’s Enchantress

46 Happening
compiled by Naomi Davis
Your resource guide.

48 Jewish While Traveling
by Lilit Marcus
A travel writer used to be afraid because she’s female. Now she turns down gigs where her revealing surname and her passport stamps signal danger.

Cover photo by Sophia Williams of Sophia’s Special Deliveries (sophiabirth.com). Sophia has been a doula since 2009 and is on a journey to becoming a homebirth midwife. She lives and photographs families in Sonoma County, California. She first learned about doulas and midwives when she was a nanny for a family who had a homebirth. That experience changed her life, and she has never looked back.

Pictured: Makenna Joen Stewart, daughter to Joel and Alanna Stewart. This picture was taken around Christmas time when Makenna was 6 days old. She weighed 5 lb at birth.

26  In the Aftermath of Isla Vista
BY DONNA DECKER
Feminists have long tried to show the link between misogyny, hypermasculinity and violence against women. This time, there was no mistaking the connection.

30  The Cruelest Weapon
BY AKILA RATHAKRISHNAN AND KRISTINA KALLAS
With rape so prevalent in conflict zones, the U.S. must lift the unwarranted ban on funding war-related abortions.

34  Skin Deep
BY HEATHER WHITE
When personal-care products aren’t regulated, women’s health is put at risk.

38  Misplaced Faith
BY MICHELE KORT
Molested by their coaches, unprotected by their sport’s leaders, women athletes are breaking the silence about sexual abuse.
Patreese Johnson spent six years in prison for trying to defend herself and friends from a homophobic assault.

5 WHEN SHE SPEAKS  Hunter Liguore

Last October, I experienced a series of events in which I knew the Goddess was speaking to me — and still I’m uncertain. How can that be? I often hear myself say, I know it’s too coincidental to be cast aside, and yet I shun my certainty — perhaps frightened of where it might lead.

8 THE HEALING CLOAK OF WOMANHOOD  Jamie Martinez Wood

Over the next four days, I drummed, howled at the moon, and began to rebuild my sense of independence and self-reliance. Some things were still uncomfortable: I wasn’t accustomed to seeing so many bare-chested women walking about so comfortable in their bodies. But my hardened shell seemed to crack open; I was learning to trust in myself again.

12 WALKING THE SPIRAL PATH  Jen McConnell

As long as I can remember, one of my sacred symbols has been the spiral: time and again, I stop and look at my life and realize that I’m walking a spiral path. I never come full circle, because even when it feels like I’m back at the beginning.

15 A HULL OF RIPENED FRUIT  Holly Cedar

A heavy weight upon my shoulders threatened to wear me down to the ground. Then an incredible sense of peacefulness filled me. It felt as though my body slipped away; I became the whole room. The lull of this timeless feeling built and swelled until it turned into a surge of power.

20 AT HESTIA’S HEARTH  Clara Oropeza

I begin my meditation by putting all that is on my mind and heart that morning onto paper. Then I lay down my pen and focus: envisioning qi flowing to my heart and bathing me with self-love and quietude. When peace has pervaded my body, I light a flame in honor of Hestia and pray.
FEATURES (cont.)

22 From Eagle’s Wing  Donna G. Sutherland
That morning, it had been six months since Dad’s passing. His spirit had visited me from time to time in dreams, but adjusting to his death was still challenging. I am a firm believer in the unseen world of spirit, but I still missed his physical presence.

25 Safe in Freya’s Arms  Freya Ylander
As we drove, the landscape became more rugged, and soon patches of snow began to appear. Then I began to recognize places that I had previously seen only in my dreams — or, as I came to realize with a start — in one particularly striking past-life journey.

29 Switching Tracks  Deborah Baudin
I soon discovered that so much of my childhood had been spent being on display, that what was left of me seemed to be nothing but an empty shell. That emptiness was to dog my steps for many years to come.

8. OCLC 71270510
10. EBSCO (various products), ProQuest (various products), Wilson (various products).
11. "Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women's and gender history focused on—and produced in—Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe. This region includes such countries as Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. In these countries the field of women's and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the "international" canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms "European women's history" into more than Western European women's history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe."

11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women's Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

11. "Columbia Journal of Gender and Law was founded to publish legal and interdisciplinary writings on feminism and gender issues and to expand feminist jurisprudence. Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

10. Feminist Studies was founded to encourage analytic responses to feminist issues and to open new areas of research, criticism and speculation. The editors are committed to providing a forum for feminist analysis, debate, and exchange. The feminist movement has demonstrated that the study of women is more than a compensatory project. Instead, feminism has the potential fundamentally to reshape the way we view the world. We wish not just to interpret women’s experiences but to change women’s condition. For us, feminist thought represents a transformation of consciousness, social forms, and modes of action.*

We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S.”

11. “Gender & Society” focuses on the social and structural study of gender as a basic principle of the social order and as a primary social category. Emphasizing theory and research from a micro- and macrostructural perspective, Gender & Society welcomes studies in sociology, social psychology, political science, history, economics, and anthropology that are framed by a social analysis and a feminist perspective. Gender & Society is committed to an evaluation policy that does not preclude any of the feminist perspectives.

Hypatia is a forum for cutting edge work in feminist philosophy. Since its inception in 1986 as an independent journal, Hypatia has been both a catalyst for broadening and refining feminist philosophy, and an invaluable resource for those who teach in this area. Feminist philosophy arises out of diverse traditions and methods within philosophy, and is also richly interdisciplinary in orientation; we are committed to publishing articles that are broadly accessible. Hypatia serves as a resource for the wider women's studies community, for philosophers generally, and for all those interested in philosophical issues raised by feminism.

Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers."

9. "The Journal of Feminist Scholarship is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal published online and aimed at promoting feminist scholarship across the disciplines, as well as expanding the reach and definitions of feminist research. We conceive of the mission of the JFS as an exploration of the state of feminist scholarship at the turn of the new century, and we see this endeavor as part of a larger question of where feminism itself is heading. We wish to encourage a discussion of feminist thought for the twenty-first century. What are its directions today, and what relationship does it sustain with the foundations laid down by feminist inquiry and action of earlier centuries? We aim to publish work that explores the multiple theoretical paradigms and political agendas of contemporary and historical feminist scholarship and the potential intersections and tensions between these paradigms and agendas. We are especially interested in examining productive controversies and divergences between local and global contexts of feminism. We also welcome submissions that focus on feminist pedagogies and activism."

PERSIMMON TREE: AN ONLINE MAGAZINE OF THE ARTS BY WOMEN OVER SIXTY

1. 2007 (electronic journal).
2. 4/year.
3. No subscription fee.
5. Sue Leonar.
6. 1534 Campus Dr., Berkeley, CA 94708 [email: editor@persimmontree.org].
7. "Persimmon Tree showcases an impressive variety of literature and art by women over 60, many still working well into their 80s and 90s. Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women is much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve.”

10. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attended to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."
