FEMINIST PERIODICALS

A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

Volume 36
Number 4
Fall 2016

University of Wisconsin System
Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women’s scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women’s culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public awareness of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers’ familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan. (Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.)

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each issue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

1. Year of first publication.
2. Frequency of publication.
3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
4. Subscription address.
6. Editorial address (if different from subscription address).
8. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
9. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
10. Selected fulltext products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
11. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 11 are used to identify the different categories of information.
Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

University of Wisconsin System users: To locate these periodicals within the UW System, do a UW System/Universal Borrowing search from your campus catalog (labeled variously “Other Libraries,” “More Libraries,” “Other Catalogs,” “Other UW Catalogs,” etc.) If information on actual holdings (volumes and issues) is not in the records retrieved, contact the Reference Department at the library of interest.

Suggestions for improvements of Feminist Periodicals are gratefully received. We would particularly appreciate assistance from readers in the UW System with our efforts to keep the holdings information complete and up to date. Please let us know about new subscriptions, subscriptions we have overlooked, cancellations, or other pertinent information.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Karla J. Strand, UW System Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone: (608) 263-5754. Email: gwslibrarian@library.wisc.edu. Website: library.wisc.edu/gwslibrarian

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at library.wisc.edu/gwslibrarian/publications/feminist-periodicals. A subscription to the periodical journals of the Gender & Women’s Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women’s Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism, along with email notification of each new online issue of Feminist Periodicals. See subscription form here.

Back issues of Feminist Periodicals are archived online at http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1793/259.

LAST RIGHTS ............................................. 16
Women and Medical Assistance in Dying
A majority of the key players in the debate on medical assistance in dying in Canada have been women. From Sue Rodriguez in 1993 to the federal government’s latest law on assisted death, women have taken up leadership roles on the issue as litigators, judges and policy-makers.
by Joëlyn Dironne

BODY OF EVIDENCE ................................. 21
Though largely forgotten for 2,000 years, female ejaculation has been documented throughout history. Thanks to sex educators, it’s making a comeback, but some researchers are throwing cold water on its makeup.

SERENA RYDER .................................... 24
Serena Ryder’s Newest Album, Utòpia, is a reflection of her journey towards embracing the darkness, as well as the lightness, that we all must face. She’s talking more openly now about the importance of mental health, balance and expressing a more expansive view of life.

K-POP’S NOTES OF SEXISM ..................... 44
In case you haven’t heard, the world has fallen in love with Korean culture. Korea’s K-pop has a huge fan following throughout the world, but the manufactured industry has been criticized for its poor treatment of its stars and for reinforcing gender roles.

ISLAMIC IDENTITIES AND GENDER IN CANADA .... 46
The Relevance of Islamic Identity in Canada offers a topical discussion for a Canadian public wishing to learn about the lived realities of Muslims in Canada. Equally important is its emphasis on the conversations that must take place within Muslim communities, one of the foremost being about gender relations.

Cover photo by Elis Freitas (elisfretasfotografias.com). Elis received degrees in pharmacy and biochemistry, but after having two children and experiencing a homebirth after cesarean (HBAC), she became passionate about birth and is now a doula and birth photographer. Currently, Elis lives in Cuiaba, in central Brazil, with her family. She is a member of the International Association of Professional Birth Photographers and also works to support women who wish to birth naturally. Pictured: Lulu Soares wanted a natural delivery, but every doctor told her that she would need a cesarean because of her physical disability. When she was 7 years old, she was hit by a truck and had both legs amputated. With Elis’ help, they created a maternity photo session focused on “I can do it” (playing off Rosie the Riveter’s “We can do it” poster), and they started an Internet campaign to raise money for Lulu to see Dr. Victor Rodrigues—a doctor willing to support her wish to birth naturally. And Lulu did! You can learn more about her birth in this issue’s Photo Album on page 64. Elis: Lulu “is very strong and an example for many women.”

6 My Friend, Elin Shannon Murray
I think to myself, “Wow, what a cool transcendental experience I just had.” Then I clearly hear a new voice: “No, my dear, that wasn’t your vision, those were my memories.”

9 Whispered Wisdom Sandra Kynes
Trees speak to us in many ways. Sometimes their messages can seem obvious, but clear communication only occurs when we are consciously open to their energy.

12 Blessings of the Elder Danu Forest
Look to the Spirit of the Forest, and you see once again this rolling balance between the individual and the collective: each facet an integral part of the whole.

15 Trees Are Our Friends Sofia Karin Axelsson
I have spent the better part of my life on the hot humid coast, or in the foggy wet mountains of the eastern U.S., and the desert world of this visit was truly new to me.

17 Song of the Desert Tree Ginger Hollingsworth–Cox
If you don’t know where to start on a journey, if you are confused or feel lost in a strange land, I suggest that you begin a conversation with a tree. They always know just what to say.

19 Becoming a Tree Priestess Kathryn Ravenwood
“You come here apologize to this tree,” I demanded, my voice quivering with righteous anger. “You have made her bleed.”

22 Lady of the Sycamore Llyn Roberts
As we settle our minds and open our hearts, nourishing energy will flow from us like the waters of the goddess’s sacred tree: it is a natural force of love.

28 She Is a Tree of Life Jill Hammer
Trees are our companions, a Jewish legend says. Their grounded wisdom gives me comfort as I walk upon the earth.

11. "Aspasia is an international peer-reviewed yearbook that brings out the best scholarship in the field of interdisciplinary women’s and gender history focused on—and produced in—Central, Eastern, and Southeastern Europe. This region includes such countries as Albania, Belarus, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Greece, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, and others."

Behavioral Sciences; IOWA Guide; Social Sciences Citation Index.

GenderWatch.

"AJS is an interdisciplinary journal, publishing articles pertaining to women’s issues in Asia from a feminist perspective."
Slovenia, Turkey, and Ukraine. In these countries the field of women’s and gender history has developed unevenly and has remained only marginally represented in the “international” canon. Through its contributions, Aspasia transforms “European women's history” into more than Western European women’s history, as is still often the case, and expands the comparative angle of research on women and gender to all parts of Europe.

8. OCLC 11830558.
10. Lexis-Nexis Academic Universe.
11. "Berkeley Journal of Gender, Law & Justice, a continuation of the Berkeley Women’s Law Journal, is guided by an editorial policy which distinguishes us from other law reviews and feminist journals. Our mandate is to publish research, analysis, narrative, theory, and commentary that address the lives and struggles of underrepresented women. We believe that excellence in feminist legal scholarship requires critical examination of the intersection of gender with one or more other axes of subordination, including, but not limited to, race, class, sexual orientation, and disability. Therefore discussions that treat women as a monolithic group do not fall within our mandate. Because conditions of inequality are continually changing, our mandate is continually evolving."

7. ISSN 1062-6220.
8. OCLC 24786087.
9. Wilson's Index to Legal Periodicals.
11. "Columbia Journal of Gender and Law was founded to publish legal and interdisciplinary writings on feminism and gender issues and to expand feminist jurisprudence. Both national and international in focus, JGL is intended to serve as a forum for topics inadequately addressed in most law journals and reviews, including issues concerning women, children, family, sexuality, reproductive rights, and violence. The articles in JGL approach legal issues from a variety of disciplines. We aim to promote an expansive view of feminism embracing women and men of all colors, classes, sexual orientations, and cultures."

9. "Early Modern Women: An Interdisciplinary Journal (EMWJ) is the only peer-reviewed academic journal devoted to the interdisciplinary and global study of women and gender during the years 1400 to 1700. Each issue of this annual journal reflects the energies of this rapidly growing field by publishing essays, art exhibition and book reviews, bibliographies, and a forum on a current topic of interest to the study of early modern women. Essays may consider women and gender from any region of the globe and may develop a number of scholarly perspectives, including but not limited to art history, cultural studies, history, history of philosophy, history of science, literature, music, politics, religion, or theater. Approaches that challenge current assumptions and cross disciplinary boundaries are especially welcome."

"Feminist Criminology is dedicated to research related to women, girls and crime within the feminist critique of criminology and focuses on research theory that highlights the gendered nature of crime. Research that uses sex as a control variable often fails to illuminate the factors that predict female criminality. Feminist Criminology provides a venue for articles that place women in the center of the research question, answering different questions than the mainstream approach of controlling for sex."

10. “Femspec, a peer-reviewed journal, is interested in developing a community of like-minded people engaged in speculating, theorizing, creating and questioning gender across the boundaries, including issues of sexual orientation. We emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, and encourage work on teaching as well as literary and cultural criticism and creative material. We hope an approach to pedagogy will bring in work from a wider area of disciplines. We are interested in a variety of feminisms and aim to be inclusive of ethnic and cultural diversity in an internationalist perspective. We are also committed to publishing feminist experimental prose and poetic works, and to experimenting across media. Our impetus came from the collectively-perceived lack of attention to non-linear writing, sf, fantasy, magical realism and supernatural works in feminist journals and audiences; the lack of consistently evolving developed levels of feminism in sf criticism; and the inadequacy of magical realism publishing outlets in the U.S.”

"International Journal of Gender, Science and Technology (GST) is an open access, peer reviewed journal that welcomes contributions from practitioners and policy makers concerned with gender issues in and of science and technology, including engineering, construction and the built environment. Research in these areas is of interest not only to academics, but also to employers and educators involved in these sectors. We welcome contributions from a variety of disciplines and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on a wide range of theoretical frameworks. Our aim is to help foster and provide a focus for constructive debate and interchange of ideas between key players and experts in this field—promoting the sharing of knowledge and new understandings. GST enables those outside of academic institutions to have access to research data and results to inform strategies, responses and progress. Academic researchers will benefit from access to case studies and reports developed by practitioners and policy makers.”

9. “The Journal of Feminist Scholarship is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal published online and aimed at promoting feminist scholarship across the disciplines, as well as expanding the reach and definitions of feminist research. We conceive the mission of the JFS as an exploration of the state of feminist scholarship at the turn of the new century, and we see this endeavor as part of a larger question of where feminism itself is heading. We wish to encourage a discussion of feminist thought for the twenty-first century. What are its directions today, and what relationship does it have to feminism laid down by feminist inquiry and action of earlier centuries? We aim to publish work that explores the multiple theoretical paradigms and political agendas of contemporary and historical feminist scholarship and the potential intersections and tensions between these paradigms and agendas. We are especially interested in examining productive controversies and divergences between local and global contexts of feminism. We also welcome submissions that focus on feminist pedagogies and activism.”

2. 4/year.
3. No subscription fee.
5. Sue Leonard.
6. 1534 Campus Dr., Berkeley, CA 94708 [email: editor@persimmontree.org].
7. "Persimmon Tree showcases an impressive variety of literature and art by women over 60, many still working well into their 80s and 90s. Many of the writers and artists are well-known: Marilyn French, Ruth Stone, Grace Paley, E. M. Broner, Paula Gunn Allen, Jane Lazarre, Faith Ringgold, and Nicole Hollander. Others are lesser known, while some are newly developing their craft in their later years. All of them are at the height of their creative powers, and all of them express the shared, though diverse experiences of aging women, from late middle age to late old age. Persimmon Tree is intended to fill a niche that has been neglected by contemporary publishing, whether in print or online. There is a growing body of work by male writers and artists who are entering or well into old age. But the comparable body of work by aging women in much smaller and mostly limited to a few already well-known writers and artists. Women are creating, but they are not getting the exposure they deserve."

10. EBSCO (various products), Ingenta, Ovid Psychinfo, Swetswise.
11. "Studies in Gender and Sexuality is a response to the excitement attendant to recent research and writing by scholars and clinicians. It provides a forum for examining gender and sexuality that is both multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary. As clinicians and scholars who have written and practiced at the intersection of feminist theory and clinical psychoanalysis, the editors are especially interested in those areas of controversy that invite the divergent perspectives and insights of different disciplines. Early issues of SGS focus on transgender identities and intersexuality; contemporary readings of the category of perversion; puberty and adolescence revised and revisited; and the intersections among class, race, and gender in theory, culture, and the clinical situation. The primary goal of SGS is to promote dialogue on these and other timely topics among clinicians, researchers, and theorists. Consonant with this goal, the journal also publishes related work from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences, where questions involving gender and sexuality are currently in lively debate."
