NEW BOOKS ON WOMEN, GENDER, & FEMINISM
Nos. 56–57, Spring–Fall 2010

Scope:

A note to readers: In the Spring 2008 issue (No. 52), we began including selected titles in two new categories: “Masculinity/Men’s Studies” and “Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Intersex, & Queer Studies.” Accordingly, we changed the name of this bibliography from New Books on Women & Feminism to New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism.

This bibliography represents a selection of new books (generally fifty or more pages long) and periodicals that have come to our attention primarily from reviews and publishers’ announcements and catalogs. For each title, we include all bibliographic information readily available to us. OCLC numbers are listed when we have consulted OCLC (WorldCat) for entry verification. We scan book reviews in a variety of feminist and general periodicals. Those listed as sources for a title arrived earliest in the production cycle for this issue, or provided us with help in establishing subjects. The absence of a source note indicates that we obtained the information primarily from publishers, Books in Print, OCLC, or other national catalog searching. The notation LC indicates that the sole source of information was a Library of Congress (LC) record.

New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism is published twice a year (Spring and Fall). Numbers 56–57 (Spring–Fall 2010) cover nonfiction, poetry, and dramatic works published primarily during 2008–2010, arranged in 32 broad categories. Novels and short story anthologies are not listed in New Books, with the following exceptions: rediscovered women writers; English translations; international anthologies; and reissued classics in new academic editions. Each title is listed only once. However, since many books have multiple subjects, a detailed subject index appears at the end of the bibliography, along with an author index. The subject index terms are created for New Books by the editor following the practices and sensibilities of A Woman’s Thesaurus, edited by Mary Ellen S. Capek (New York: Harper & Row, 1989, c.1987). Beginning with Issue 46, we designate country of publication for works published outside the United States, Canada, or the United Kingdom.

The “Periodicals” category includes descriptive annotations of first or sample issues received.

New Books is NOT an acquisitions list. We cannot guarantee that books listed here are held by the University of Wisconsin libraries. We hope that this bibliography will be used to strengthen library collections and serve researchers and other interested readers in the U.S. and other countries. We encourage researchers unable to obtain a book locally to take advantage of interlibrary loan services. Check your local public or academic library for details.

The New Books staff welcomes your suggestions about format, arrangement, and content.

PERIODICALS

This is different: a magazine for girls that is unabashedly about fashion, but not in the ways that usually make us cringe. "Kiki has a unique point of view," the website tells parents and other adults in girls' lives. "To make room for creativity, we've left out a lot of what publishers consider 'must-have' content. There's no gossip, no dating, no sensuality, no instructions on how to kiss, no tips on getting sexy abs... The magazine uses the college fashion design curriculum as a starting point to encourage girls to explore other disciplines (business, geography, fine art, craft, history, world culture, even math). Girls will learn that having fun with style and artistry is completely compatible with intelligence and creativity."

FEMINIST PERIODICALS: A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS
http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/feminist-periodicals.html
(print ISSN 0742-7433 through v.27, n.4; electronic ISSN 1941-725X v.28, n.1 and thereafter, online-only)

An electronic journal that reprints on a quarterly basis the table of contents pages of over 150 magazines and journals, from academic journals such as Signs and Feminist Studies to special interest periodicals on women of color, art, law, health care, lesbian issues, and women around the world. Since many international and grassroots titles are not indexed in standard sources, FEMINIST PERIODICALS is the best key to their contents -- an invaluable aid for researchers scanning the current literature.

WOMEN’S AUDIOVISUALS IN ENGLISH (WAVE)
http://digital.library.wisc.edu/1711.dl/WAVE

A database we maintain that lists documentary, experimental, and feature film and video productions by and about women. The information has been drawn entirely from distributors’ and producers’ catalogs and websites, reviews in periodicals, filmographies, reference works, and library catalogs; in most cases we have not examined the materials themselves. WAVE is NOT a record of the holdings of the University of Wisconsin libraries, nor are we a distributor for any material listed. We provide the distributor’s name directly within the individual record, but further contact information is in a separate file linked from each WAVE entry.

We also maintain a webpage with contact information for distributors listed in WAVE at http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/publications/WAVE-distributors.html
Wherever you are, the Women’s Studies Librarian can help.

Whether you’re working on an undergraduate research paper in Madison, planning your gender-focused dissertation in Milwaukee, teaching a women’s studies course in Marshfield, or pursuing a topic of personal interest in Minneapolis, Madrid, or even Mongolia, you can use the rich resources of the University of Wisconsin System’s Office of the Women’s Studies Librarian.

“First, WSI is the best database for indexing of women’s studies journals in terms of number of titles covered, dates of coverage, and number of citations available for each title. Even though the database does not provide full text coverage, Women’s Studies International is a superior database that indexes a large percentage of women’s studies core journals.” Project Muse — Scholarly Journals Online, citing Cindy Ingold's review in LIBRARY TRENDS, Vol. 56, No. 2, Fall 2007 (“Gender Issues in Information Needs and Services,” edited by Cindy Ingold and Susan E.
