A CURRENT LISTING OF CONTENTS

NUMBER 38

ABOUT THIS PUBLICATION

Summer 2018

Periodical literature is the cutting edge of women's scholarship, feminist theory, and much of women's culture. Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents is published by the Office of the University of Wisconsin System Gender & Women's Studies Librarian on a quarterly basis with the intent of increasing public visibility of feminist periodicals. It is our hope that Feminist Periodicals will serve several purposes: to keep the reader abreast of current topics in feminist literature; to increase readers' familiarity with a wide spectrum of feminist periodicals; and to provide the requisite bibliographic information should a reader wish to subscribe to a journal or to obtain a particular article at her library or through interlibrary loan.

Users will need to be aware of the limitations of copyright law with regard to photocopying of copyrighted materials.

Table of contents pages from current issues of major feminist journals are reproduced in each is-sue of Feminist Periodicals, followed by a comprehensive annotated listing of all journals we have selected. As publication schedules vary enormously, not every periodical will have table of contents pages reproduced in each issue of FP. The annotated listing provides the following information on each journal:

- 1. Year of first publication.
- 2. Frequency of publication.
- 3. Subscription prices (print only; for online prices, consult publisher).
- 4. Current editor.
- Email address.
- 6. International Standard Serial Number (ISSN).
- 7. OCLC, Inc. Control Number.
- 8. Selected publications in which the journal is indexed.
- 9. Selected full text products in which publication appears or vendor intermediaries who make the full text available.
- 10. Subject focus/statement of purpose of the journal.

Please note that in the actual text, only the numbers 1 to 10 are used to identify the different categories of information.

Our goal in Feminist Periodicals is to represent English-language periodicals from around the world that focus on gender, women's studies, or women's issues. Generally, we do not include mainstream newsstand magazines. We are also unable to include periodicals that lack a complete table of contents. We encourage feminist serials to build a full table of contents into their regular format to facilitate possible inclusion in FP and indexing elsewhere.

Feminist Periodicals: A Current Listing of Contents (ISSN 1941-725X) is published online, quarterly, by Dr. Karla J. Strand, UW System Gender & Women's Studies Librarian, 430 Memorial Library, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706. Phone: (608) 263-5754. Email: feministperiodicals@library.wisc.edu. Website: library.wisc.edu/ gwslibrarian. Curator and Compiler: Lachrista Greco, MA.

Feminist Periodicals is available free of charge at library.wisc.edu/gwslibrarian/publications/feminist-periodicals. A subscription to the periodical journals of the Gender & Women's Studies Librarian includes our print publications Feminist Collections: A Quarterly of Women's Studies Resources and New Books on Women, Gender, & Feminism, along with email notification of each new online issue of Feminist Periodicals. See subscription form here.

A Hidden History of Jewish Food

"ONE OF THOSE PEOPLE"

Unexpected Anti-Semitism in Small-Town USA

THERE'S

Elissa Slotkin

vol. 43. no. 2 · summer 2018

In the Garden of Eden, long before the eating of the apple, the Holy One created the first human beings—a man, Adam, and a woman, Lilith. Lilith said, "We are equal; we come from the same earth." (Alphabet of Ben Sira, 23a-b)

10 "Flawlessness by Ines"— The Hidden Bruises

by Yaëlle Azagury
Seven years after the Arab Spring,
a Moroccan Jewish feminist returns to Tangier and connects with her

14 Running for Office

Muslim ex-schoolmates.

by Susan Weidman Schneider and Joan Roth Ballots for U.S. Congress this season list an unprecedented number of Jewish women. Who are they? Why, win or lose, did they enter the fray? And how would they bring the change they want to see? Lilith's editor in chief and photographer took to the campaign trail to find out.

25 A Jew in America Becomes a Jew in Israel

by Ilana Blumberg
Suddenly the State is no longer the
Other—it's her, and her family.

Other—it's her, and her family. How to confront this identity shift and its responsibilities?

28 The Midwife Divide

by Justine Orlovsky-Schnitzler
Jewish women, often early adopters of medical advances, are rethinking their childbirth options. But who deserves a doula most?

32 When Food Betrayed the Jews

by Susan Barocas

Tracing modern food cultures back to the Spanish Inquisition and before, you find that what you eat carries more meaning than you'd known. Plus...recipes for Sephardic leeks, and almond pastries.

37 I Pretended I Could Shelter My Daughter from the Patriarchy

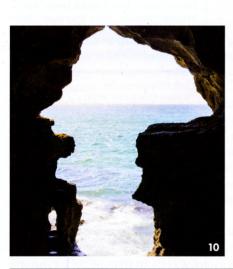

by Sara Fredman

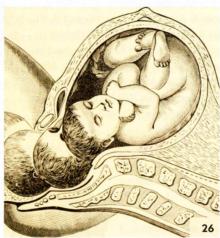

It began with a lie. She told her daughter that the Jewish boys' choir on the recording was really girls. The lesson that followed was illuminating.

40 Five Recent Encounters; Or, "One of Those People"

by Elisa Albert

Novelist Albert lives in Upstate New York. Here's a sampling of the unanticipated anti-Semitism she's been hearing from people in her circle.

Cover photo by Rebecca Coursey-Rugh (awonderedlife.com). Rebecca is a documentary photographer and birth doula in California. When she was young she dreamed of being able to craft tales about the way she saw the world around her—illustrating lives and etching words into stone. She lives in Los Angeles with her husband, three boys, two black labs, and a cat.

Pictured: Birth, like death, is universal, yet each woman has her own story of how she became a mother. Birth can be wild and fierce but soft and quiet, predictable yet unexpected. In this image, the laboring mother is softly held and comforted by her husband, as well as by her own mother. It not only echoes the deep, immeasurable love that was felt in the room that day but reflects humanity's own longing for reverence and unwavering support during birth.

ERA: JUST 1 IT'S ONLY #REDforED WANT JUSTICE? #METOO BLOOD LISTEN TO THE TEACHERS GAS STATION MANAGER RESPECT OUT HEROLOGICAL STREET

"The power in working as a collective is that we are saying you're not going to divide us. ... no matter what my income bracket, no matter what I'm doing, I deserve to be free of violence and to work with dignity, and so does everyone else."

- MÓNICA RAMÍREZ, ALIANZA NACIONAL DE CAMPESINAS

In a series of lessons on the potential of collective political action, more than 130,000 educators joined strikes, rallies and walkouts in six states.

18 Held for Ransom

BY SARAH WILLETS

When poor women—legally innocent women—can't pay their bail to get out of jail, whole communities suffer. Here's what women activists are doing to fix this unjust system.

24 Enough Is Enough

BY CARRIE N. BAKER

Women workers, celebrities, feminist leaders and Congress members are demanding changes in laws to bold predators accountable for sexual harassment and assault. Here's the plan.

The group Southerners On New Ground (SONG) is part of a swelling national movement to abolish—or at least limit—the use of cash bail.
