1 INTRODUCTION

Nowadays, international students are under great pressures, so that they are looking forward to the vacation to relax. However, it is also important for them to spend vacation wisely. In order to help them make full use of their vacation and improve the qualities of their vacation, our project investigate how international students spend their time on vacation.

3 SURVEY RESULTS

The result of the survey also shows that most international students prefer to visiting a big city over a small city. They also like to go travelling in the U.S. instead of travelling to the other countries because of closer distance and plane travel is more popular than other transportation. Staying in a hotel is students’ first choice for accommodation and renting a house during travelling is also popular. Another thing for those who travel during vacation worry about most is safety. Most people stay in campus because they do not have enough budget and some of them want to prepare for their future courses.

2 METHODS

A Online research (QQ, Messenger, WeChat)
- 63 results from online questionnaire to International students at UWEC
- About 20 questions on the survey

B Informal face-to-face research
- interviews with Chinese students

4 DISCUSSION

There are many choices for international students to take a perfect vacation. Whichever way you choose to spend your vacation, you will definitely enjoy this wonderful time. In addition, we have some supplemental tips to help you plan your vacation better.
