Historical Note

The Inter Greek Council was formed in 1975. The IGC acted as the coordinating body for all non-honorary Greek organizations on the University of Wisconsin-Stout campus. Its main purpose was to provide for the general welfare of all Greeks, to promote Greek awareness among the campus community, and to facilitate communication between fraternities and sororities. The organization ceased to exist in 2000.

Scope and Content Note

Miscellaneous folder includes information on membership expectations and more information on the organization's constitution. Inter Greek Council Records folders are primarily meeting minutes, but these folders also include policy information and event materials.
