Historical Note

The inner-society Council was created in 1929. Its purpose was to form stronger relationships between women's organizations on campus and to formulate and submit inter-society regulations regarding new members and functions. Membership on the council consisted of the officers and advisors of existing women's organizations. After several of the groups joined national sororities, the name of this group was changed to the Intersorority Council. In 1956, the council became affiliated with the National Panhellenic Council and changed its name to the Panhellenic Council.
