The University of Wisconsin-Whitewater appreciates the efforts of the members of the Higher Learning Commission's Evaluation Team and we thank them for the thorough and candid evaluation of our university and its operations.

I have included with this letter a list of a few corrections we would appreciate being made to the report before it is disseminated any further. I regret that they were not identified in our earlier response.

If you have any questions or need additional information, do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Requested Corrections
June 12, 2006

1. A period should be added to the last sentence on page 17.
2. In the next to last sentence in the second paragraph on page 18, the word “have” should be changed to “has.”
3. Also in that same sentence, the phrase “along with a change in the compensation levels for full time faculty” is not accurate. There was a change in compensation for instructional academic staff. This could be corrected by deleting the phrase “along with a change in the compensation levels for full time faculty” or by changing the “full time faculty” to “instructional academic staff.”
