Historical Note

The early directories were compiled and printed by advanced printing students as part of a thesis problem. Although the publishing of the directory as a thesis problem ended with the 1925 Summer Session issue, the directory continued to be printed and composed by

Stout printing students until 1966 when the directory changed to reduced computer print-out type and to a booklet format.

Scope and Content Note

The 1928-1929 Regular Session issue was the first one which was identified with the Stout Bulletin series. It is not possible to tell if the directory was issued as a Bulletin until 1950, when the directory again appeared as a Bulletin. This continued until 1963, however the placement of the directory within the Bulletin series is difficult as there is often no volume number given.

Bulletin notations are given for those directories which were identified as Bulletins:

- Box 1, Folder 17 – 1928-29, Regular Session Directory (Bulletin 1928 Vol. 23, No. 3)
