Administrative Information

Acquisition Information:

The following were the guidelines for acquisition of publications to the Faculty Publications File:

- All publications by Stout Faculty/Academic Staff which are issued under the auspices of UW-Stout will be retained.
- All publications of Stout's Chancellors and Presidents will be collected and retained.
- All publications of a Faculty/Academic Staff member will be retained if the Archives has the personal papers of the individual.
- Copies of all journal articles written by Stout Faculty/Academic Staff will be kept.
- Items not owned by the Library of Congress will be kept. Conversely, items owned by the library of Congress will not be kept although a bibliographic record of the item will be retained. Older works may be kept even if owned by the Library of Congress if they have a special significance in Stout's history.
- Only publications which were issued during the time period the individual was a Faculty/Academic Staff member at Stout will be retained, however, other publications may be retained if the individual retired from Stout.
- Doctoral and master's theses are not retained as a part of the faculty publications series unless the theses was written for a degree at another institution and involved Stout as part of the theses.

Processing Note:
