Historical Note

The Office of Academic Affairs had its formal beginnings in 1964 when Dr. John A. Jarvis was named Dean of Instruction. Jarvis first came to Stout in 1946. Prior to his new appointment, Jarvis had served as Dean of the Division of Industrial Education and the Director of Summer Session. As the new Dean of Instruction, Jarvis became responsible for the supervision of the college's entire instructional program. Two years later, following a reorganization of the University's administrative structure, Jarvis became the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

After stepping down in 1971, Jarvis was replaced by Dr. Wesley L. Face. Face, a long-time faculty member at Stout, had been the University Curriculum Coordinator and Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. He had also served as acting Vice President of Academic Affairs when Jarvis was interim President of Stout. In 1973, Face was named as Vice Chancellor, the number two administrative position at the university. In this position, Face assumed increased operational responsibilities that cut across division lines, while remaining as head of the university's academic affairs. Offices reporting to the Vice Chancellor were the following: Learning Resources, Continuing Education and Summer Session, Graduate College and Research, and the Schools of Education, Liberal Studies, Home Economics, and Industry and Technology. Face remained Vice Chancellor of Stout until 1990 when he assumed the James Huff Stout professorship.

Provost/Vice Chancellor of Academic Affairs duties as of Fall 2019, taken from the UW-Stout website: The Provost's Office has oversight of the Division of Academic Affairs, encompasses the following areas at UW-Stout: Career Services; College of Arts, Communication, Humanities and Social Sciences; College of Education, Hospitality, Health and Human Sciences; College of Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics and Management; Graduate School and Stout Online; Honors College; Nakatani Teaching and Learning Center; Office of International Education; and University Library.

Scope and Content Note

This is the main file of the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. The records of the Assistant Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and the Dean for Curriculum, Research and Graduate Studies are also in this record series. Included in this collection are committee records, reports, correspondence, building information, successful grants, proposals, and curriculum development materials. The bulk of these materials are from 1964-1984. The collection covers the entire range of concerns of Academic Affairs and includes a variety of subjects. Of special interest is correspondence and reports from the various schools as well as information from such offices as the Center for Research and Educational Improvement, Learning Resources, the Graduate College, and the Admissions and Credits Committee. It should also be noted that this collection contains many of the records of John Jarvis when he was acting president of Stout. In the first section, 1951-1987, original filing order has been kept and is arranged alphabetically by subject heading. The second section, 1952-1987, follows a numerical subject classification system.

Starting with Box 103: In 1985, a numerical subject classification was established for the records in the Vice Chancellor's Office. Files were weeded and inactive records were removed to temporary storage. Records remaining in the files were converted to the numerical subject classification system. A cut-off date was not established, but rather records judged inactive were stored and records judged active were converted. Therefore, there is considerable overlap in the dates between the old alphabetical organizational structure and the new numerical system. The researcher is advised that the numerical classification system developed for records of the Vice Chancellor's Office is first a grouping by broad category and thereunder a hierarchical approach largely by office, rather than by subject. Therefore, the researcher will either need to have considerable knowledge regarding offices in the UW-System and at UW-Stout or will need extensive help from the Archivist. At the time of processing in 1990, not all number categories had been transferred to the Archives, so the following includes only those records transferred. The original finding aid in the Master Finding Aids File located in the archives includes subject term headings for boxes 103-178, and beyond. A Records Management Inventory List with the number categories and subject term headings is also included. The broad categories are as follows:

000 – General

100 – External

200 – All-University Administration

300 – Academic Affairs

400 – Curricular

500 – Development

600 – Fiscal/Budget

700 – Personnel

800 – Physical Facilities

900 – Student

Box 179-195: These additions include records from Robert Sedlak, Associate Vice-Chancellor, and Nelva Runnalls, the former Dean of the Graduate College. Records from these individuals most likely surpasses box 195.
